Silver Dreams and Memories

In September 1953, as the doors swung wide at Paramount High, a bright fall day looked down on a peppy student body, the essential plant, and acres of sand. No gym, no tennis courts, no senior square, no football field, no bungalows and several missing units! Not a tree, shrub or blade of grass was evident. It was called the "Dust Bowl." There were nine hundred students, a thirty-four room school plant, and a forty-five member staff.

In September 1978, still growing to meet the demands of Pirates, PHS has changed its appearance considerably in these 25 years. With the addition of more classrooms, more greenery and more students, the school has grown in beauty and size. Now more than ninety staff members and a school plant consisting of more than one hundred rooms accommodate a student body of approximately twenty-two hundred.

2. Students enjoy themselves at snack, one of the most welcome times of day.
3. Proudly displaying school spirit, PHS mascot hangs in the gym for everyone to see.
4. This is senior square as it appeared in the '50's. Although changed in appearance as well as size, now it is still the proud domain of the seniors who still fiercely defend it against "underclassmen" intruders.

2. Blossoming trees line the walk way up to the foyer of the school. These are just a few of the many trees that are on campus.
3. Planters are enlarged and an outside stage is added to the rally court. This is one of the improvements made on campus this year.

From Elvis To Supergraphics

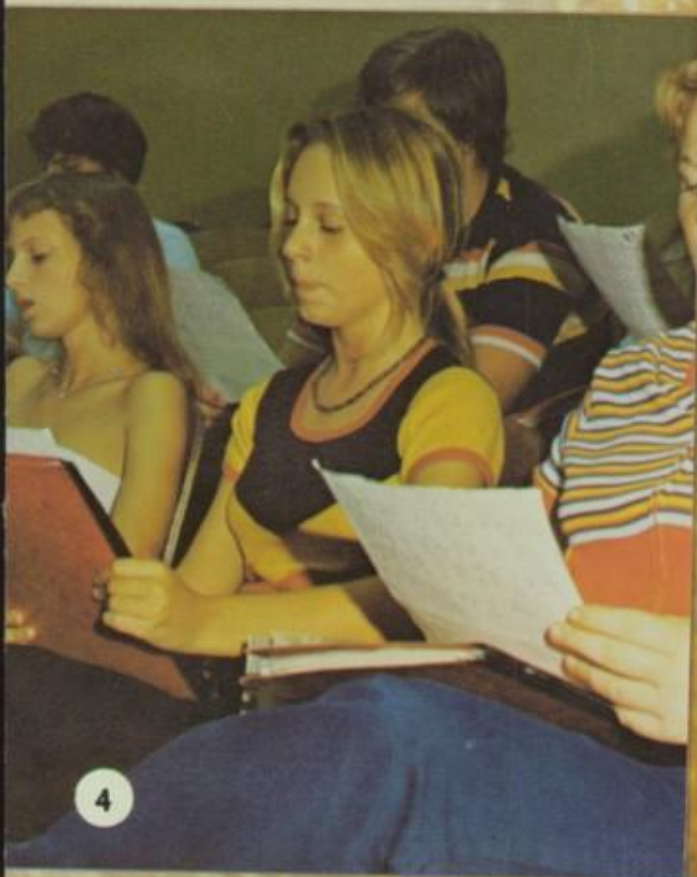

1. Janise Borrego sketches her thoughts into artwork. This is one of the many projects which are done in art class.
2. Jo Ann Zuidervaart carefully tapes her project together and gets it ready to paint. These projects are small but take much time and effort.
3. Many days before a program, Tina Van Zant and the choir practice Christmas songs. The choir takes much time and effort to sound its best.
4. The crafts class makes many projects such as the puppets in this picture. They are made out of paper mache, and paint is added as the final touch.

In the 50's, designs were plain; cars and clothes were usually one color. Music was dominated by Elvis, the king of rock 'n roll.

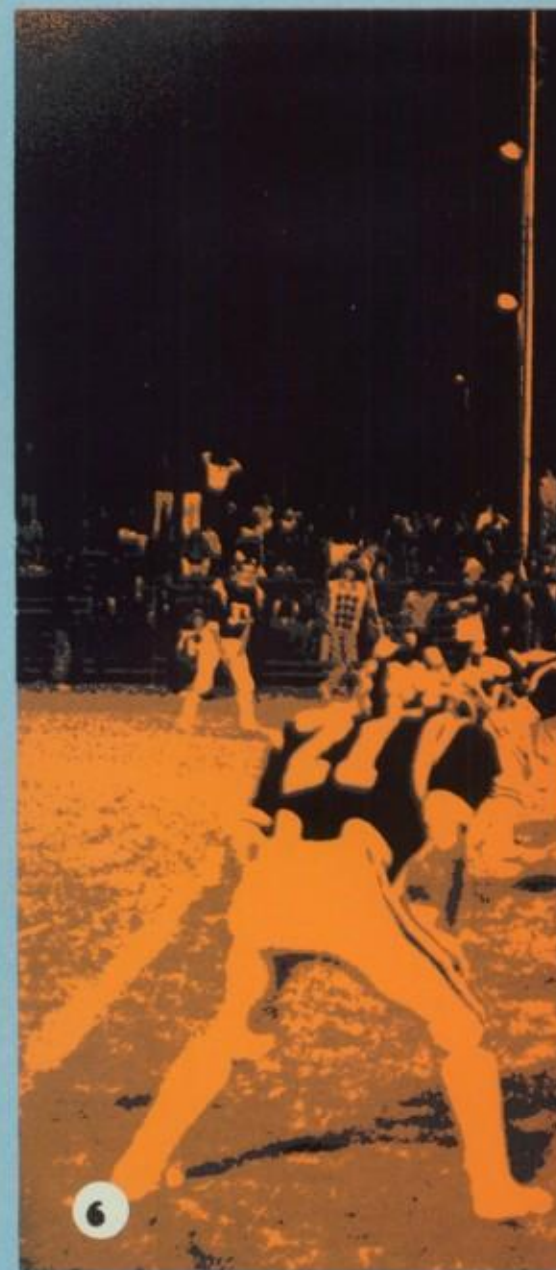

But now in the 70's, we can rock to the sound of Led Zepplin or relax to Neil Diamond. Colors in clothes are combined to make a flashy combination. Pin striping and murals line the sides of little trucks, vans, and cars. In design, the age of supergraphics has arrived.

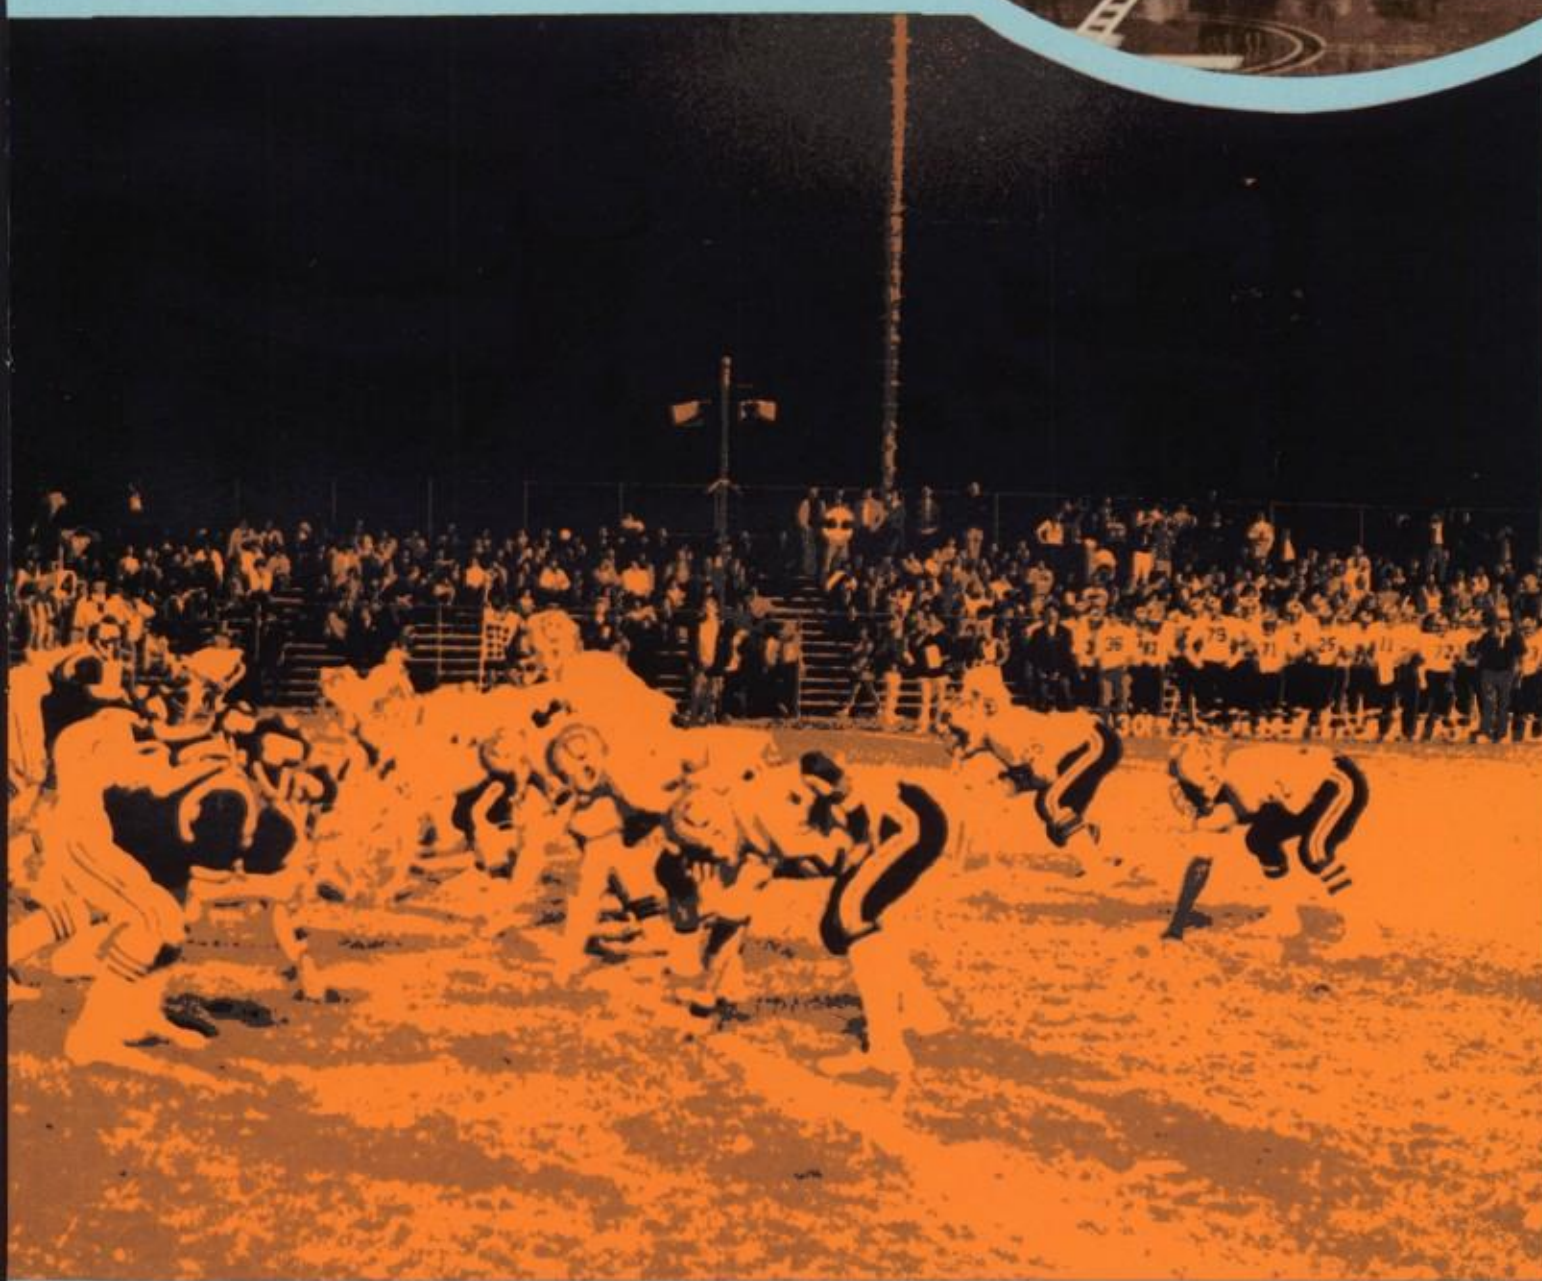

PHS Moving Out to Number One!

Struggles, triumphs and defeats- these are all a part of a Pirate athlete's life. They go to practice and work hard. They feel the pain of the workout and strain of competition, but they keep on. While others may be out at the movies, an athlete is working out hard for that important race or game. They have a common goal, and that's winning. When the game is over, they find that the pain was all worth it, and they move on because Pirate pride keeps them going!

1. Art Valdivia makes a diving catch of a ball hit by opposing team. Art was a starting outfielder.
2. Toni Matsumoto serves against Glenn in doubles. She went on to win the match 6-2.
3. Carrie Meuhlhauser hits a good spike against Excelsior. Volleyball is a fast growing sport at Paramount.
4. In 1958, this bronzed shoe was awarded to Jerry Otterson for kicking the winning field goal to clinch league championship.
5. Jerry Otterson attempts to block shot in 1958 game against Inglewood. He was the highest scorer on the varsity team.
6. Pirates varsity football team lines up against Mayfair. They went on to beat Mayfair and improve their record to 4-0.

Bobby Socks to Fleetwood

The bell would ring and the students would scurry across the barren campus to their bikes and cars, so they could get home in time to watch "Rin Tin Tin." That's how it was back in the 50's, with the leather jackets and ducktails and bobby socks and ponytails. The students would rush to buy their tickets for the Canteen Dance, while others went to get their tickets for the football game against Santa Monica in the playoffs.

The 60's brought the Beatles, the landing on the moon, and the agony of the Vietnam War. Then came the 70's.

Now we rush to get our soc-hop tickets. After the game we go for pizza. On Saturday, we go out to the movies; if lucky, we get to go to a concert. From Elton John and Fleetwood Mac, to Stevie Wonder and Bonus Jacks.

Changing Curriculum Marks Quarter Century

Emphasis was on college preparatory courses in the first years of our school's history, and there was little interest in a vocational program. Now the vocational courses include medical assistants, stenography, auto mechanics, lithography, and child care. The work and independent-study programs have been expanded also.

Emphasis on fundamentals in the early years gave way to elective programs and relaxed standards. Innovations in teaching methods and materials characterized the years of restlessness and rapid change in the late '60's and early '70's. Now a concerned community has encouraged renewed emphasis on basic skills in reading, writing, and arithmetic. Reading and composition laboratories have been added to provide special help.

A conscientious teaching staff has constantly changed old courses and introduced new ones in an attempt to prepare students to face a complex and changing world, to reach out for meaning, and to be individuals in a fast-moving society.

1. Randy Tisdale, Kevin Denham and Arjo Blyleven repair engine in auto mechanics. Girls as well as boys now enroll in this practical class.

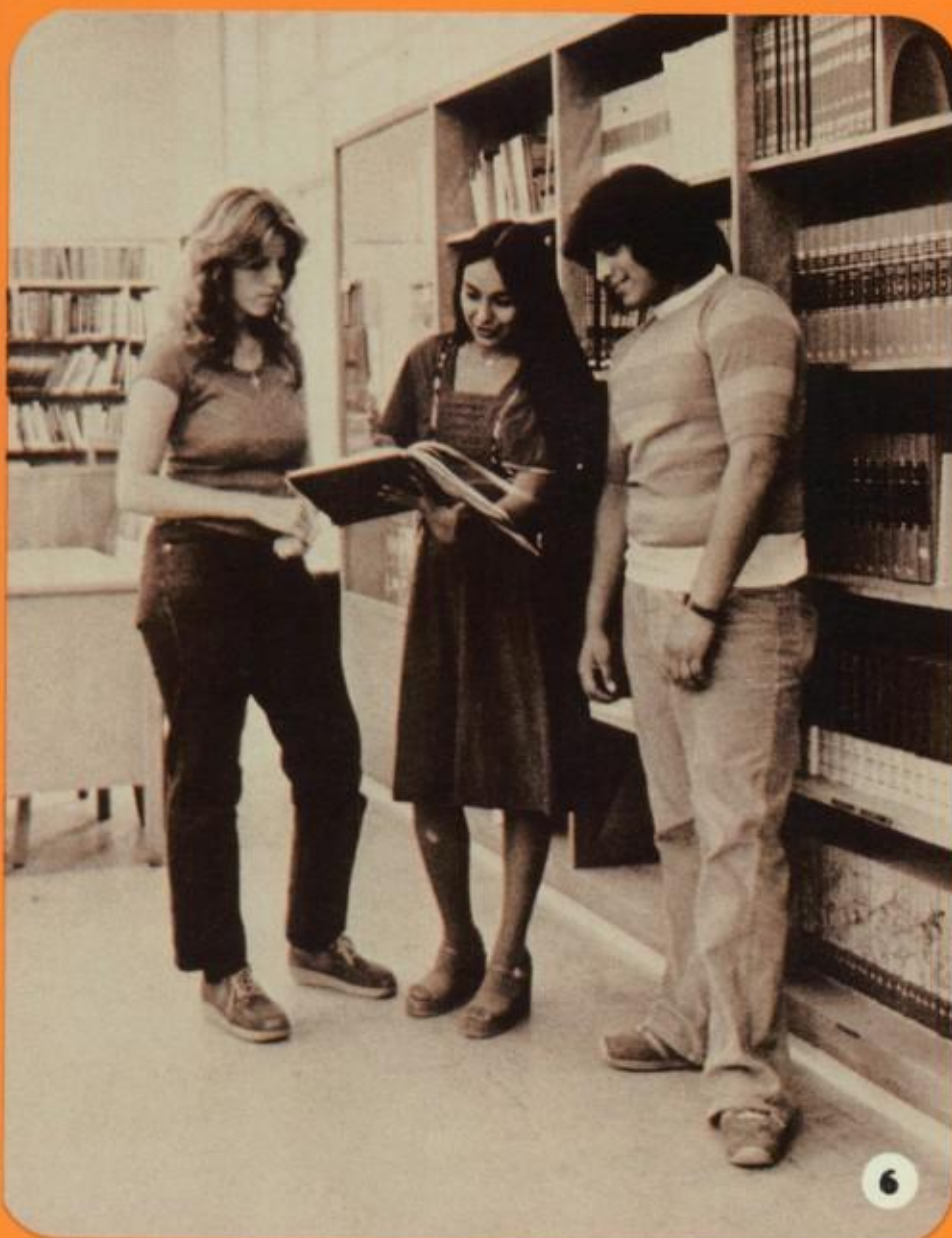

2. Steve Catalfamo takes test in business machines, one of the many vocational courses available. Skills acquired here help students find jobs.

3. Typing is one of the most popular courses offered in the vocational field.

4. Mike Durain and Donna Bennett are at work in lithography. Not only does litho prepare students for jobs, but it also proves to be an interesting experience.

5. Students work on assignments in algebra, one of the many college-prep classes here.

6. Miss Gita Satyendra, new PHS librarian, explains reference material to students. The librarian is always helpful.

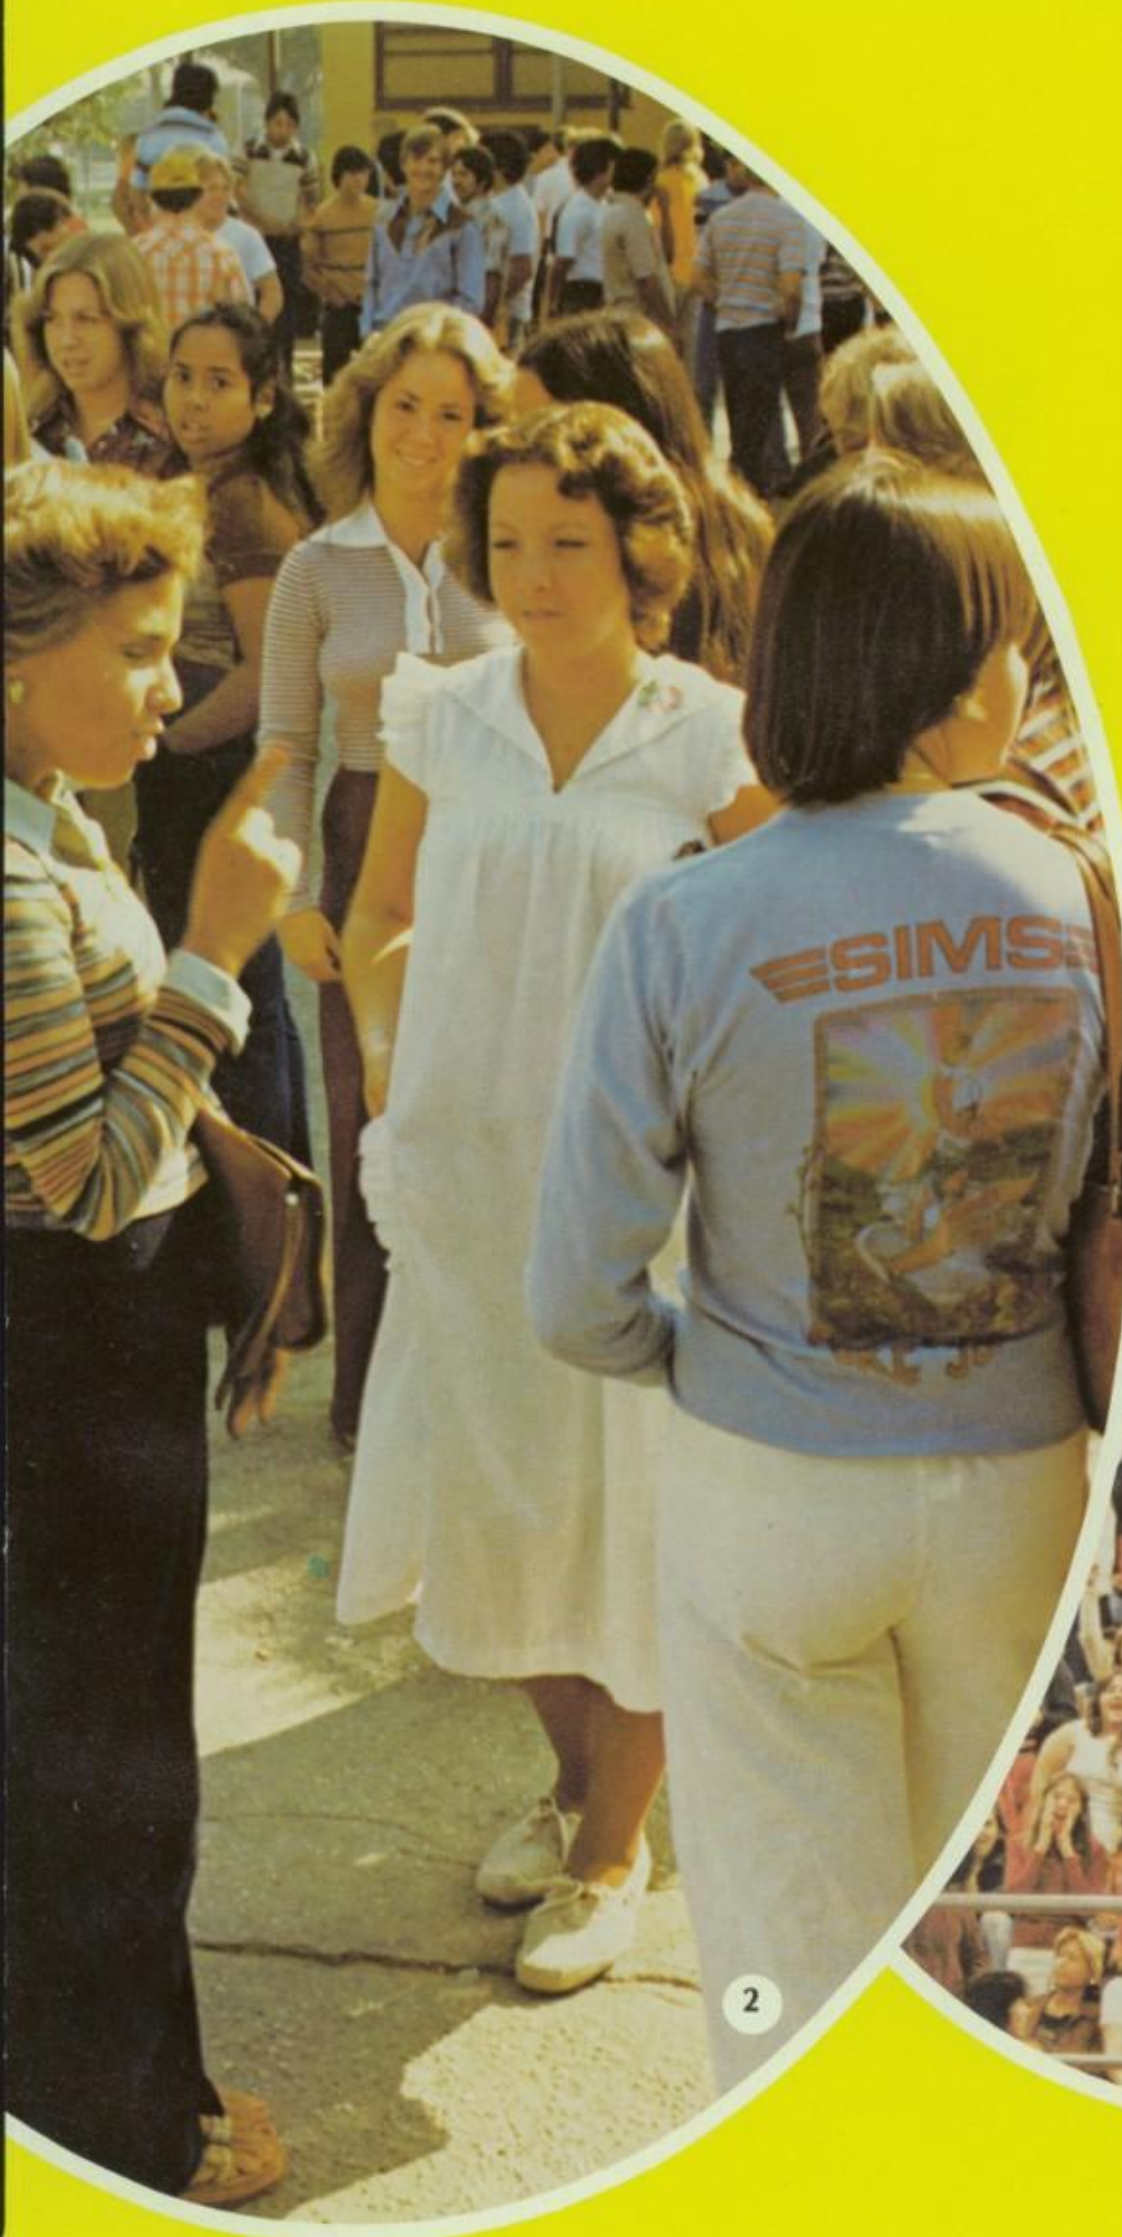

1. Students line up at the snack bar. The building originally housed the student store, but was converted to the snack bar just this year.
2. Evette Gardner, Angie Lemon, Genie Compton, and Holly LeBlanc take time out to discuss the game Friday evening during snack. Many students use this time to talk with friends or to prepare for their next class.
3. Freshman Yell perform, for the student body at rally. The rallies are to get the students, faculty, and most of all, the players fired up for the night's game.
4. Students compete for the Spirit Jug at rally. Many people took part in making our rallies successful.

Growing in poise and self-confidence, facing challenges, experiencing competition, winning and losing, joy and tears, appreciating team spirit as well as the pride of individual effort — these have been the things that have endured in student life throughout the twenty-five years.

Dreams of accomplishment, realistic goals, and optimistic attitudes have characterized the spirit of youth that has always pervaded student life on the PHS campus. The third decade has presented difficult choices, but our generation is equal to the task! Choosing the right theme, voting for the right leader, and planning the right program are decisions that determine the success of school activities.

Linda Bruce Is 25th Anniversary Queen

Highlighting the homecoming half-time festivities was the crowning of the twenty-fifth homecoming queen. As the crowd viewed fireworks displays that spelled out her name, Linda Bruce was crowned queen for 1977-78.

The gym was decorated in silver and blue to carry out the theme of "Silver Memories" for the dance Friday night, November 11. The band "Evergreen" provided music for dancing and listening.

They Sing the Songs

Choir and Girls' Glee had a busy schedule throughout the year appearing before local churches, service clubs, hospitals and other community groups.

Christmas season was especially busy as choir and glee, directed by Mr. James DeBolske and accompanied by Mrs. Joyce Sinclair, made many appearances with their special Christmas program.

Songs and Special Things

In their sparkling new uniforms, the Pirate Marching Band provided entertainment for pep rallies, football half-time activities and local parades.

The band was directed by Mr. Clinton Sawin and led by his student assistants, Drum Majors Lisa Segars and Glenn Johnson.

Choosing the songs to play, charting formations for half-time shows, and keeping the unity of the band were just some of the important tasks which our Drum Majors accomplished with the help of Miss Darlene Akridge.

A Year Full of Music

Our Symphonic Winds and Concert Band along with Orchestra and Stage Band gave many performances during the year.

Our groups rehearsed daily, and sometimes there were special practice sessions to get the finishing touches just before performances.

Going to festivals, performing special Christmas concerts and presenting our annual spring concert were highlights of our schedule. Each turned out to be successful.

Pirates Will Take You Higher

Some of the things Varsity Song and Yell did this year to show spirit for their teams was to give goodies like oranges and little football helmets full of candy. They even toilet-papered the team members' houses. All of this was done to try to help promote spirit throughout PHS, not only for the team members but for the students as well.

During the summer the pep squads went to Loyola University camp. Varsity Yell and Song received first place for the spirit jug. Varsity Song received two fourth places and Varsity Yell received a fifth place for squad competition. Both squads also attended Marina High School clinic and a Disneyland clinic.

Practice Makes Perfect

Sophomore Yell picked very nice uniforms. The girls wore maroon sweaters with a little girl emblem. Their skirts were maroon with white stripes, and they wore oxfords. The squads practiced very hard for basketball, football, and other activities. The girls practiced during the summer on competition routines, and it paid off because in one competition at camp the girls got two third places and one fifth place.

Drill Team Spirit Shines!

Facing the challenge of trying out for the drill team has been a big event for many girls here each year. If they made it, they had hours of practice ahead during the summer and one hour after school every day during the school year. They attended the Miss Drill Team USA Pageant this year and were also in the Westminster Parade.

New, Bright!

The freshman cheerleaders attended a camp at Loyola University where they learned new cheers along with the other pep squads. The way the girls earned the money for camp was during summer school, the squads had a snack booth in which they sold cokes, cupcakes and potato chips. The frosh yell leaders tried their best to show spirit for their teams.

Something New Added

With the new seven-foot flag poles that replaced the ten-foot ones, the girls worked hard learning new routines and a different way of marching. The shorter poles allowed the girls to have a greater variety of formations.

The majorettes also did a great deal. The two sophomore girls practiced for football games, parades, and competitions.

Anniversary Theme for '78

The staff members voted to use the theme "Silver Dreams and Memories" to commemorate the school's twenty-fifth anniversary year. They sought to tell the story of this year and also portray the many changes that have occurred in a quarter century. They searched through old yearbooks and newspapers and interviewed people at school and in the community for information. They found pictures that had been in the files for years to use to show the contrast of the '50's to the '70's.

They met certain deadlines, and some stayed after school for long hours of work until their pages were completed. Staff members felt that it was worth the trouble in order to get the books before school was out. Each member had the privilege of having his name engraved on the cover of his book. The whole staff worked hard to make a book reflecting the fun and good memories of the year.

1. Dorothy Swearingen concentrates hard while taking a senior test. Teachers influenced seniors to try their best for the benefit of the school and their future plans.

2. Senior Andy Peralta is picking out the right book for class. Students have been urged to take care of their lockers and keep combinations to themselves.

3. Jacques Thibodeaux and Alfred Munoz try desperately to hang the senior sign. Unless you are seven feet tall, it can be hard work.

4. Sharon Lamphear tries to explain to Mark Hatwan how to iron properly. Some boys are reluctant to sign up for the coed senior homemaking class, but they soon discover it can be fun and helpful.

Paramount High School's first senior class consisted of ninety-six graduates in 1954. During the past twenty-years, times have changed. The senior class of 1978 has 365 graduating students.

Knowing this was the last year for them was a happy thought for some—for others, a sad thought. As seniors bid their last goodbye after the all-night party, all the fun and friendship of PHS will be remembered for a long time. Those four short years of high school went by so fast it was hard to believe. As seniors part and go their separate ways, they are free to strive for whatever goal they chose in life.

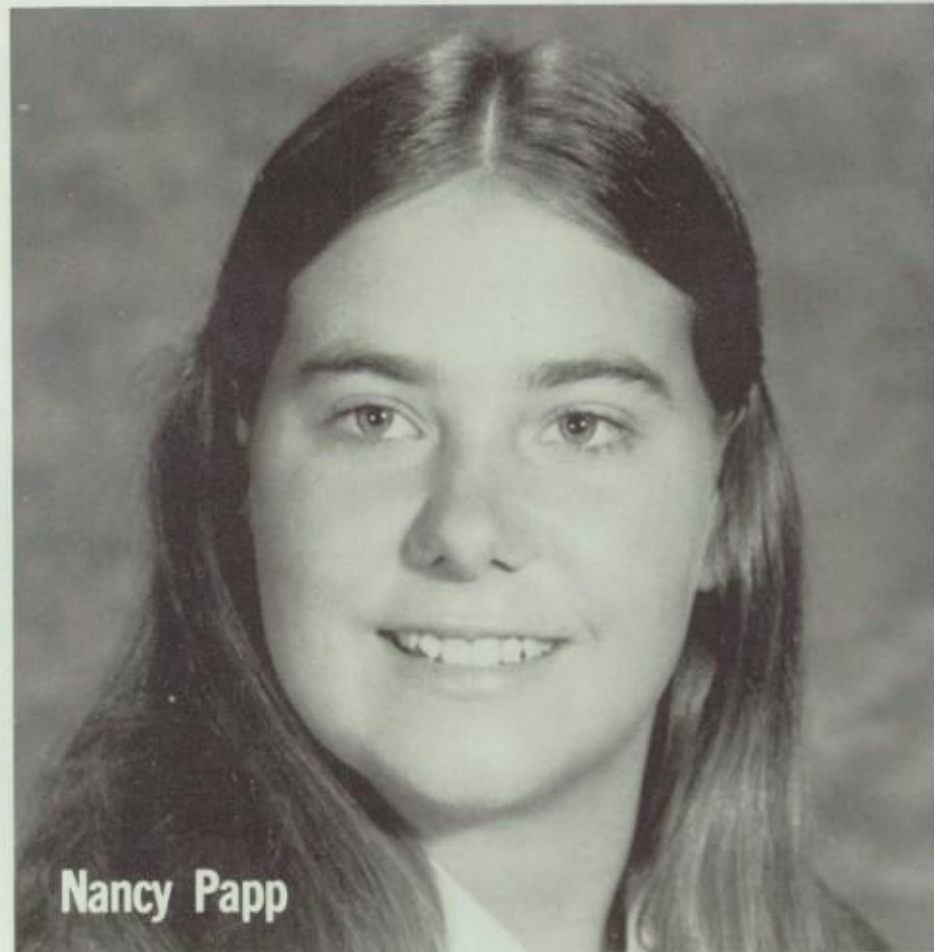

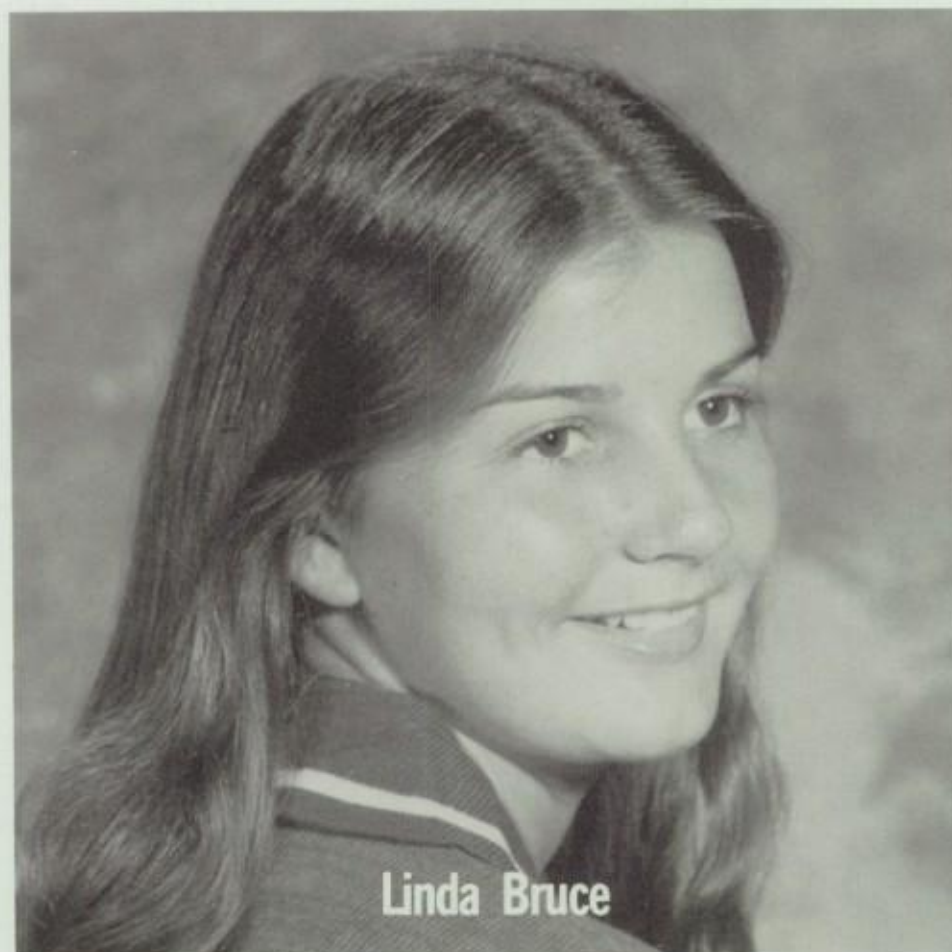

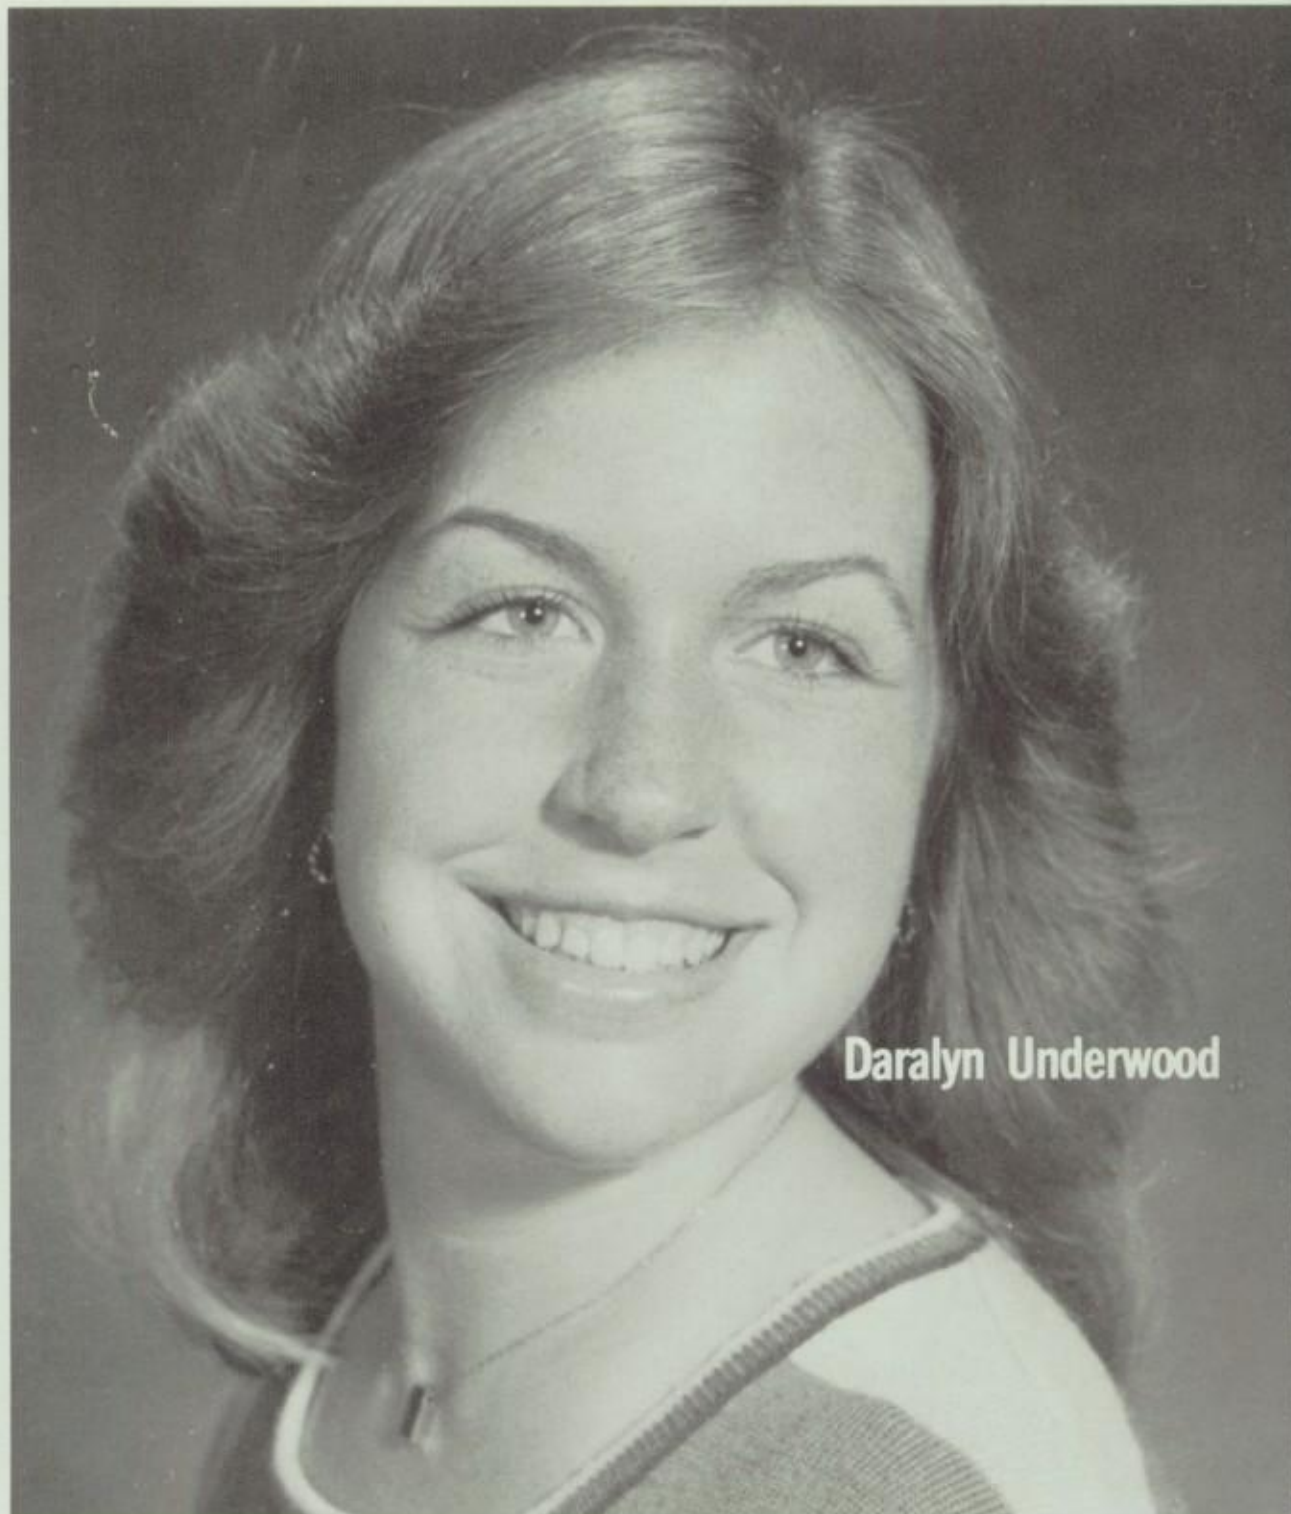

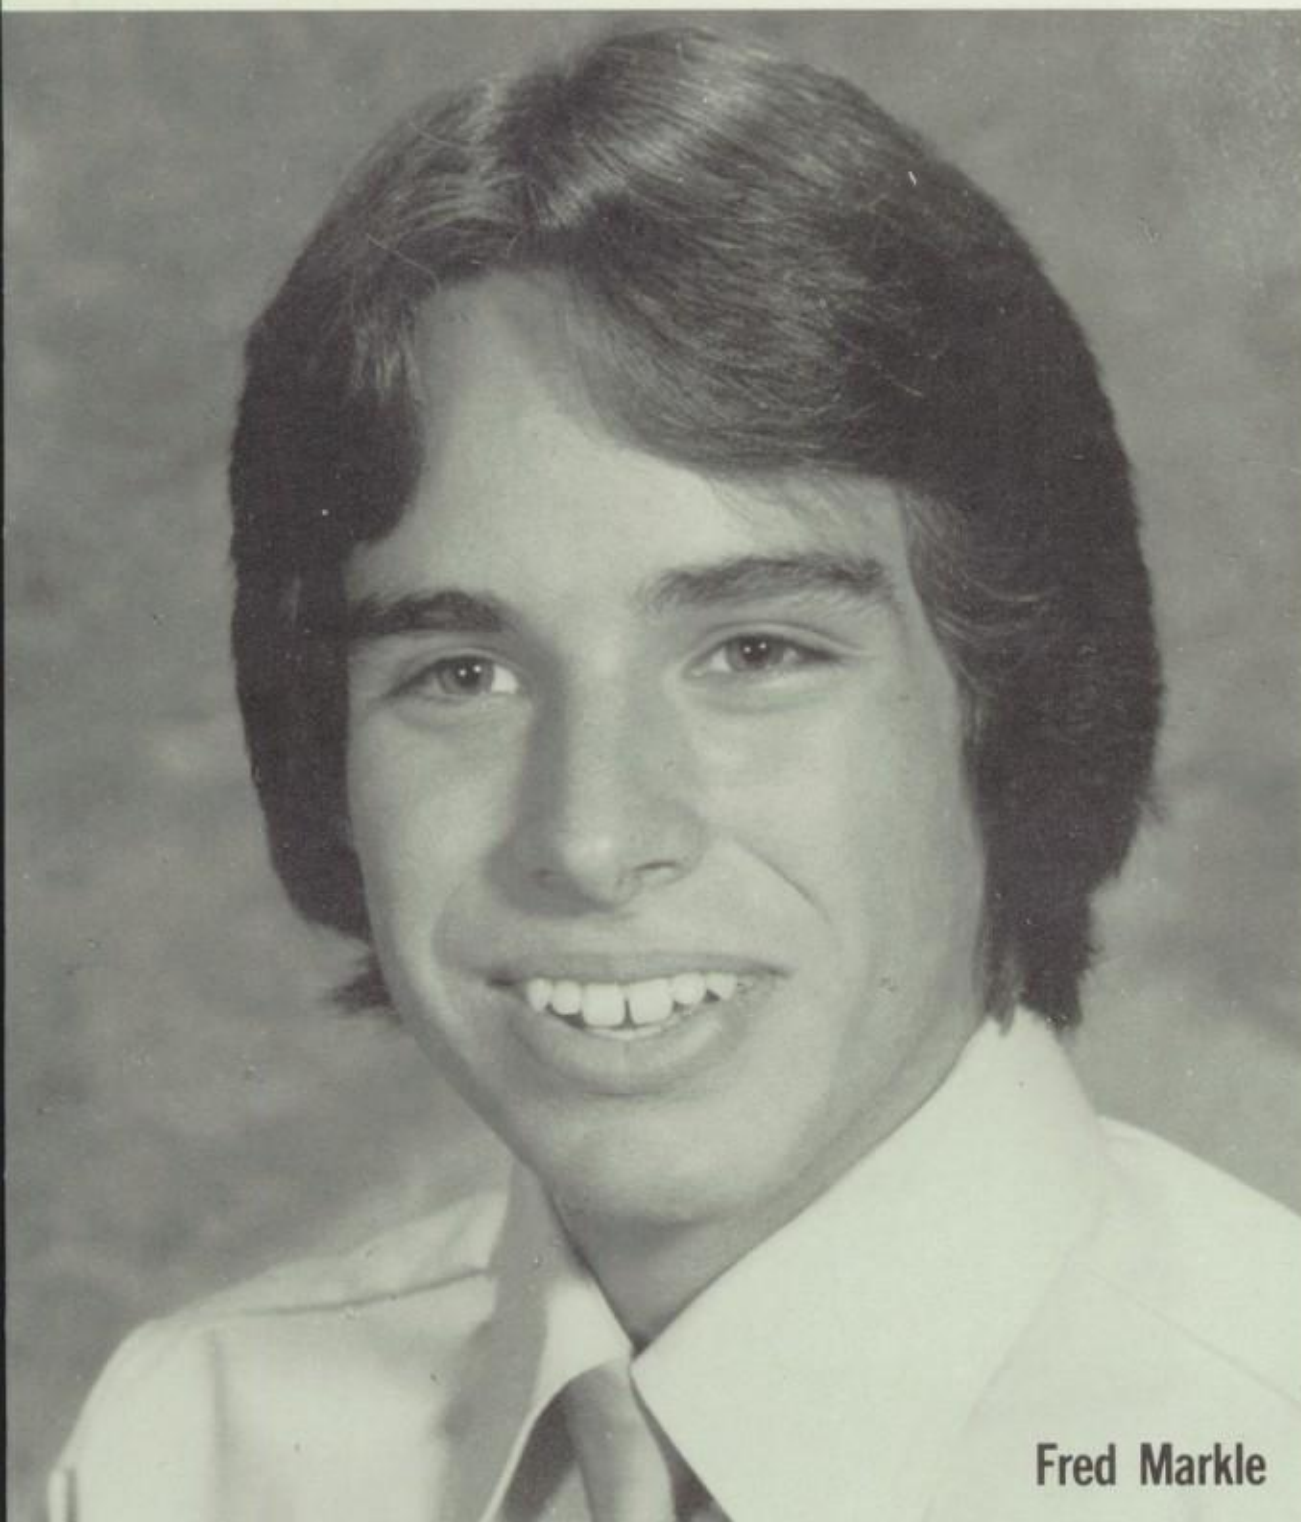

Leadership Awards Given

Daralyn Underwood was one of the recipients of the Jack Robinson Leadership Award for 1978. She was active as junior class secretary, a sophomore and junior class council representative and ASB Commissioner of Rallies. Daralyn was involved in many activities, such as being a member of the Friends in Fellowship Club and the VCC Club. She was also junior representative of Pirate League and head of Song.

Nancy Papp, a runner-up, was involved in many activities. She served as ASB secretary, frosh, soph and junior class representative and junior representative of Pirate League. Nancy was also active in Pacettes.

Another runner-up was Linda Bruce. She was involved in government as a junior and senior class representative and president of Song and Yell Club. Linda was active in yell, and she was Homecoming Queen.

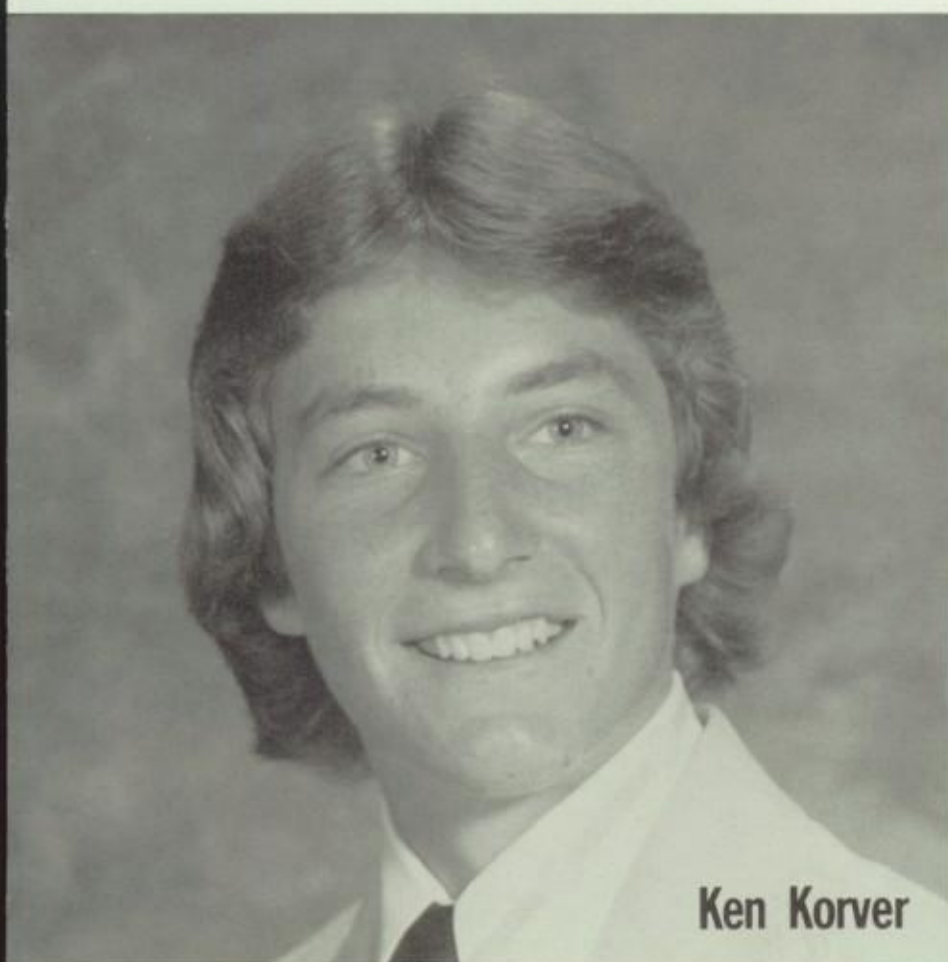

Fred Markle

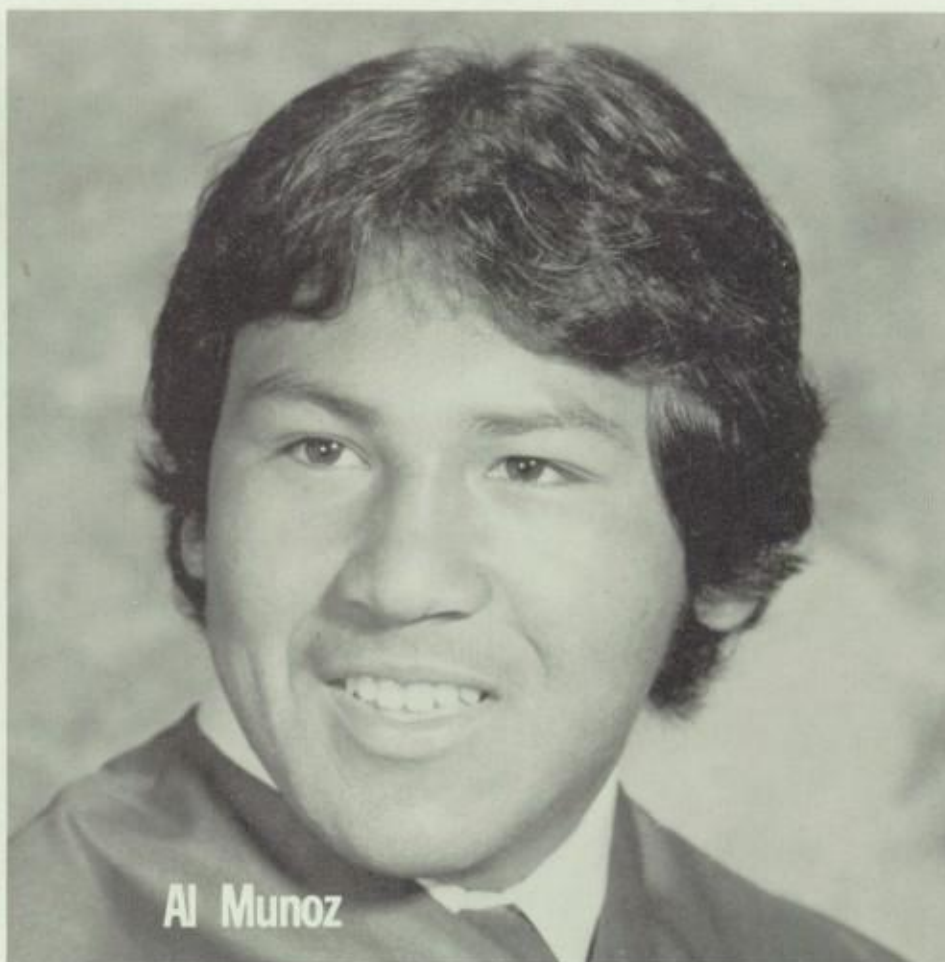

Fred Markle, also a recipient of the Jack Robinson Leadership Award, was involved in many activities. He was active in student government, serving as frosh, soph and senior class president and ASB president. Fred was on the ESAA Advisory Board and a Board of Education Student Representative. He was also on the cross country and track teams.

Al Munoz was chosen as a runner-up for the Jack Robinson Leadership Award. He was active as ASB Commissioner of Athletics and ASB Vice-president. Al was also on the frosh and J.V. football teams and J.V. and Varsity wrestling teams.

Ken Korver, a runner-up, was involved in many activities. Among them were ICC, the Varsity Club and the Friends in Fellowship Club. Ken was junior class vice-president, senior class president and also on the Principal's Honor Roll.

Twice Is Nice!

Selected as teacher of the year, for the second year in a row was Mr. Paul Renfrow. In his second year at PHS, he taught general science and was coach of the J.V. baseball team and frosh football team. Mr. Renfrow was also the sponsor of the Friends in Fellowship Club.

Honors Galore!

By maintaining a grade-point-average of 3.75 or above, twelve members of the Class of '78 graduated with high honors. At graduation, they wore medallions on a maroon and white strap. They were allowed to keep these after graduation was over. This was the second year that high honorees received this distinction.

Barbara Williams

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, who has taught science and math here for thirteen years, received this year's PTA Honorary Service Award for her dedication and outstanding work with the students here. Mrs. Thompson was presented this award at the February 9 meeting by the Paramount High School PTA. She was not aware that she was going to receive the award and was not planning to attend the meeting until Assistant Principal Jeff Valentine tricked her into being present.

Honoring Twenty-three

Twenty-three members of the class of '78 graduated with honors by maintaining a grade-point-average of 3.5 or above. For the graduation ceremony, they wore gold cords to distinguish them from the high honors and the other grads. This was also the second year that honors received this distinction.

1. Rebekah Street was the Class of '78's Girls' State representative. She went to Sacramento for a workshop on government and stayed there for a week.

Rittenger Takes First

Mr. Robert Rittenger was selected as basketball "Coach of the Year" by the Suburban League coaches and the Southern California Basketball Coach Association. He was the first coach at Paramount ever to receive this high honor. He has always worked hard with all the basketball players to keep them playing at their best.

Mr. Rittenger has been teaching at Paramount High School for eighteen years and has been coaching basketball for fifteen years. He retired as coach but will remain teaching. He will also continue to be athletic director for this school.

Seniors Select Favorites

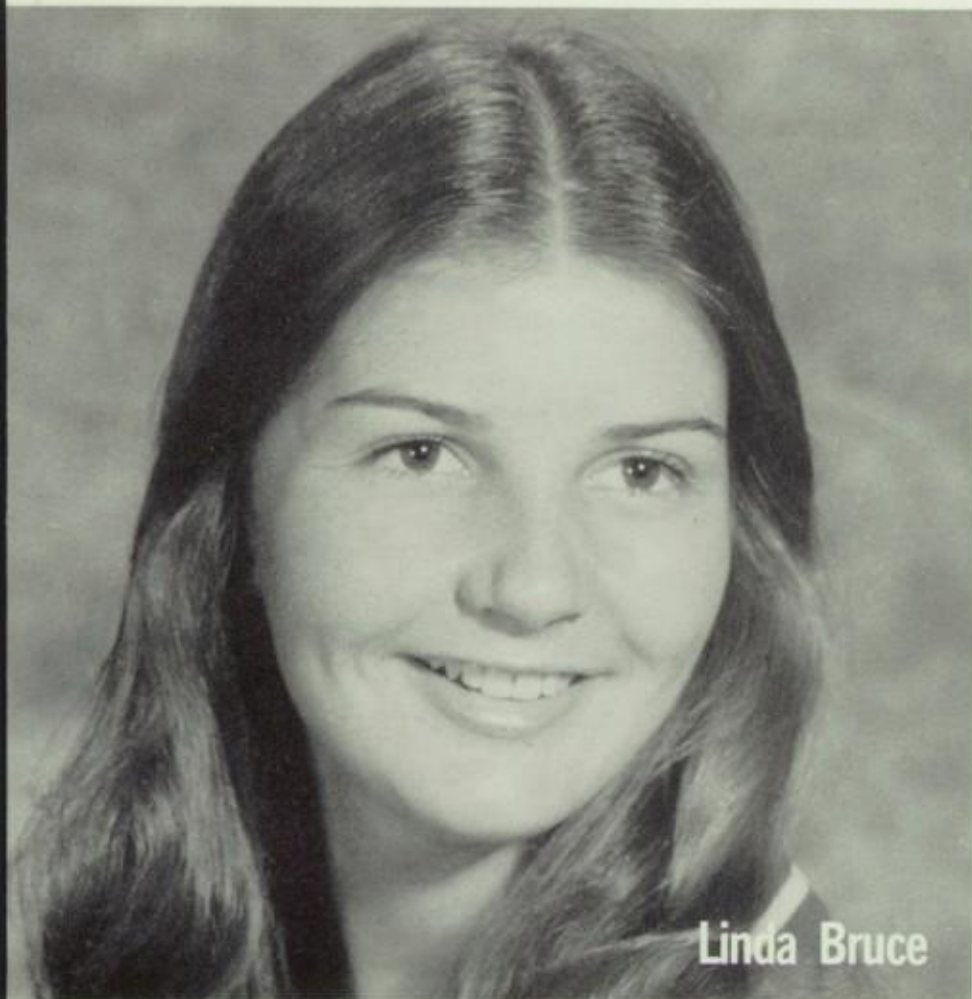

Ken Korver was selected as Pete Pirate by the senior class of 1978. Ken was active in student government serving as junior class vice-president and senior class president. An outstanding athlete, he was on the frosh basketball team in his freshman year and varsity in his sophomore, junior and senior years. He was also president of the Friends in Fellowship Club.

Art Bouck, selected as runner-up for Pete Pirate, has been junior class representative and junior class president. Art, also an outstanding athlete, has played frosh, soph, J.V. and varsity basketball and J.V. golf. He was also on the Principal's Honor Roll.

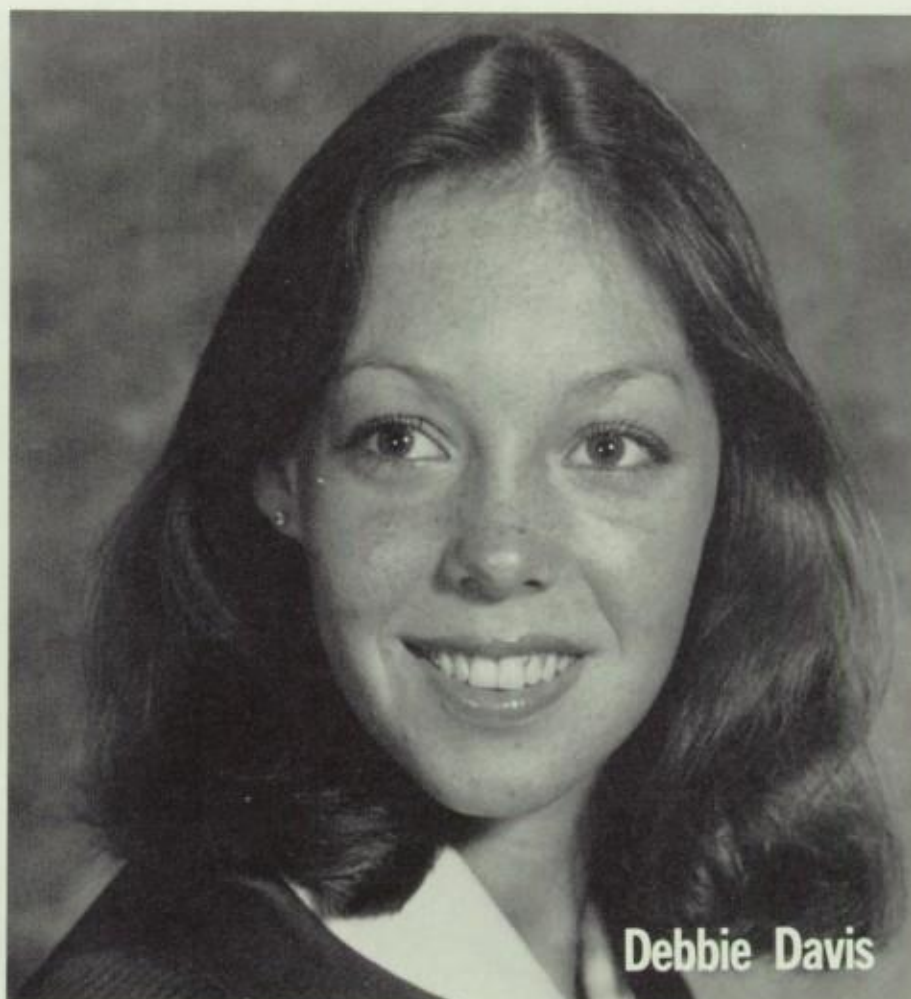

Roger Fopma, selected as a runner-up for Pete Pirate, has played frosh, soph, J.V. and varsity basketball. Roger was active in Marching Band and Pep Band. He was also a member of the Varsity Club and the Wilderness Ecology Club.

Ken Korver

Linda Bruce

Debbie Davis

Lisa Ahlen

Lisa Ahlen was selected as Polly Pirate by the senior class of 1978. Lisa was active in Pirate League activities. She also kept varsity baseball stats for the '77 and '78 seasons.

Linda Bruce, selected as a runner-up for Polly Pirate, showed leadership as junior and senior class representative. Linda was on J.V. Yell and was head on Frosh and Varsity Yell. She was president of the Song and Yell Club and on the Principal's Honor Roll. Linda was also Homecoming Queen.

Debbie Davis, selected as a runner-up for Polly Pirate, was active in Surf Club and in the Choir. Debbie was on Frosh, Soph and Varsity Yell.

Senior Power!

Sunshine Disco Enterprises was a special soc-hop sponsored by the senior class. We sold plastic megaphones with the emblem of a Pirate on them also as a fund-raiser. Ordering the graduation announcements and getting our senior keys were among the highlights of the year.

Our prom was held in the Disneyland Hotel, and the theme was "Precious and Few."

Seniors looked forward to the tea, breakfast and outing at the end of the year.

'78 Keeps the Spirit Going

Keeping up the traditions of Spirit Week during the week of Homecoming, the Christmas assembly, the Sadie Hawkins dance, and getting our class rings and sweaters were only a few events that went on during the year. Some of the things seniors had looked forward to as underclassmen were invading senior square, the prom, the senior outing, the senior tea, and all-night party and turning an underclassmen's ring. Decisions that were contemplated by all seniors were whether to go to college and if so which one to attend, whether to work full or part time, or whether to leave home and move out. Graduation made a number of seniors think about the responsibilities of being young adults.

1. In the yearly Christmas assembly, Cecil Avery shows his talent at playing the violin. A lot of practice and hard work went into this well-received program.
2. The week before Christmas vacation, the Senior class put up their traditional yule tree. Christmas spirit was built up at the sight of the tree.
3. Showing the victory sign, Senior Connie Hawkins and Mr. Richard Hall smile after winning the egg-tossing contest during Spirit Week. (Picture courtesy of Herald American.)

1. Juniors eat lunch in front of the school. The shade and quietness was a change from the crowds by senior square.
2. At a rally in the mid 60's students showed spirit by clapping and yelling. The rally court itself has changed a great deal over the years.
3. Senior Tracy Matsumoto arranged cookies on a tray for the Homemaking Fashion Show.
4. Standing around talking was a favorite pastime for students at snack.

During the 50's when PHS first opened, the Pirates twisted to the sounds of the Platters, Ink Spots, Jerry Lee Lewis, Neil Sadaka and Chubby Checker. Then along came Elvis Presley, The King of Rock and Roll. Students went wild when they heard an Elvis song on the radio or at their favorite hang-out.

The 60's proved to be the start of today's rock, with groups such as the Beatles, Beach Boys, Jimi Hendricks, and the Rolling Stones.

Today's teenagers listen to everything from hard rock to disco. Led Zepplin, Aerosmith, Boston, Eagles, Fleetweed Mac, Chicago, Firefall and Queen are a few of the more popular groups. Going out to a discotheque or a Super Concert is a way of showing how much you like the music. Superstars such as Peter Frampton and Rod Stewart gave concerts to over 90,000 people in one place.

Campus Changes

Starting school in the fall of "77" proved to be interesting for the seniors.

Senior Square was being rebuilt with a concrete stage, and new bricks were being put around the trees. Grass was planted in front of the gym and where the bike rack used to be.

Another big change was the building of the girls Softball Field. Lights were put up on the boys baseball diamond and plans were being made to provide picnic benches for the students use. Also the old Student Store was changed into another snack bar to help speed up food distribution to the hungry Pirates.

In the 50's & 60's the big change at Paramount was the building of the bungalow's, the "O" wing of rooms, and Senior Square.

3. Seniors gather at snack to discuss that night's game.
4. David Conner in his natural, Casey Turner in his shake cut, and Bill Lunney in his feather cut talk at snack. These are the hair styles of the 70's.

When PHS first opened, some girls wore their hair short, some in ponytails, and some in tight curls. The boys all had short hair. In fact the school's dress code required the hair to be above the ears and above the shirt collar. In the 60's both the boys and girls hair length became long.

This year, short hair was coming back into fashion as a result of Dorthy Hamel and her wedge hair cut. Boys' hair styles seemed to be inspired by male rock singers like Peter Frampton with his curls. Some young guys now had permanents, which at one time had been for girls only. But that's the 70's for you!

Students Dressing by Rules in '50's

Twenty-five years ago, there was a very strict school dress code that set down the rules for clothing on campus. Girls wore dresses and skirts below the knees and could not wear pant suits except on special days. Boys wore slacks and occasionally levis. T-shirts were considered as undergarments and were worn under shirts.

Flat-heeled shoes were considered most appropriate for school for girls. Wing-tip and penny loafers were popular among the guys.

Men teachers were expected to wear suits and ties, and women were expected to wear dressy clothing.

Students now dress for comfort and appearance. Girls wear Dittos and T-tops with high-heeled boots, sweat shirts and jeans.

Guys wear levis, cords and dressy jeans, polo and Hang-Ten shirts, platforms and fancy sports tennis shoes.

The changes in attitude and life styles have been reflected in apparel.

More Time to Munch-Lunch

A forty-five minute lunch? Impossible! But that is what we had. More time to talk to our friends and more time to eat lunch. This longer lunch was a result of requests by students who said that 35 minutes was not enough time to eat lunch comfortably; so ten minutes was added to the lunch hour. This pleased many students who went off campus for lunch. These people went to McDonald's, the dairy, and Jack-in-the-Box, where waiting in long lines was a regular routine. The ten minutes allowed students time to get back to the campus before the bell rang. The longer lunch was deemed practical because seventh period was scratched from the daily schedule. Oh, thank you great administrator in the sky.

1. Lunch is one of the times to sit and talk. 2. What's this Chewing tobacco at PHS! 3. After a pep rally at snack, students talk up a storm before the bell rings.

R.O.P. is for Learning

One of the programs that R.O.P. offered to students at Paramount High School was Fashion Merchandising Coordination. Two times a week students met in front of the school to catch the bus to take them to Montgomery Wards in Lakewood Center. There they learned how to model, how to be head of a fashion department, and how to work at the store. The class hours were from three to six, and this course lasted one semester. The students received five units of credit. They tried out for all their parts in the fashion show.

Working, Getting Good Experience

If working, many students enroll in Work Experience to enable them to receive credit. At the monthly meetings, informative speakers discuss various career opportunities. Students, after hearing and watching a demonstration, soon discover the jobs they would like after graduating. Mr. Muhyeddin Jassim is the coordinator for this class, and he arranges for the presentations. This class has been offered at Paramount High School for many years, and it has always been a success. Just like the students!

Seniors Prom Theme Is "Precious and Few"

April 28 was the night; the Disneyland Hotel Grand Ballroom was the place.

We enjoyed ourselves by dancing, seeing friends in their tuxes and gowns, and watching the spectacular water show that was so uniquely timed to music.

The ballroom was very large and decorated in wonderful colors; it was an awesome sight to experience. We ate a modest dinner consisting of filet mignon, baked potatoe, and a mixed green salad. Our dinner was complimented by luscious Boston cream Pie. Later in the evening we watched the water show set to music and oohed and awed at the rainbow of colors.

Along with this, we danced to our content. For many of us the night went by quickly because we were having a wonderful time; others stopped at times and savored the surroundings so their memories of the prom would be vivid in their minds ever. Looking back we have to say the prom was a memorable evening, one which we will not likely soon forget.

Now Ending a Good Four Years

In our first year at Paramount High, we were 720 strong, but by our senior year our number dwindled to only 416.

Over the years we sponsored many activities-interclass volleyball games, girls' interclass football games, soc-hops and once even a spaghetti dinner.

In our last year we attended the traditional senior activities. At the Homecoming football game we saw Linda Bruce crowned Homecoming queen. We experienced the Homecoming dance the following evening. Later in the year there was the Valentines dance that we attended. In April was the prom, the theme of which was "Precious and Few." This dance was perhaps the most memorable of all. We took our favorite person to the Senior Tea. During our last week of school we went on the senior outing, where we all had a fantastic time. We climaxed our years at Paramount High at the graduation ceremonies. Our top academic peers for our class said a few words and then some school officials did. The time came for us to hear our names called and walk across the makeshift stage to receive our diplomas from the principal to end forever what was a great four years. Our class gathered once more at the All-night Party where we said "goodbye" for the last time.

Looking back on the first and last twenty-five years of PHS, we see that many changes have been made. During the first sixteen years, there were no freshmen. It wasn't until 1969, only nine years ago, that freshmen were seen on Paramount High campus. Another change was that physical education went co-ed.

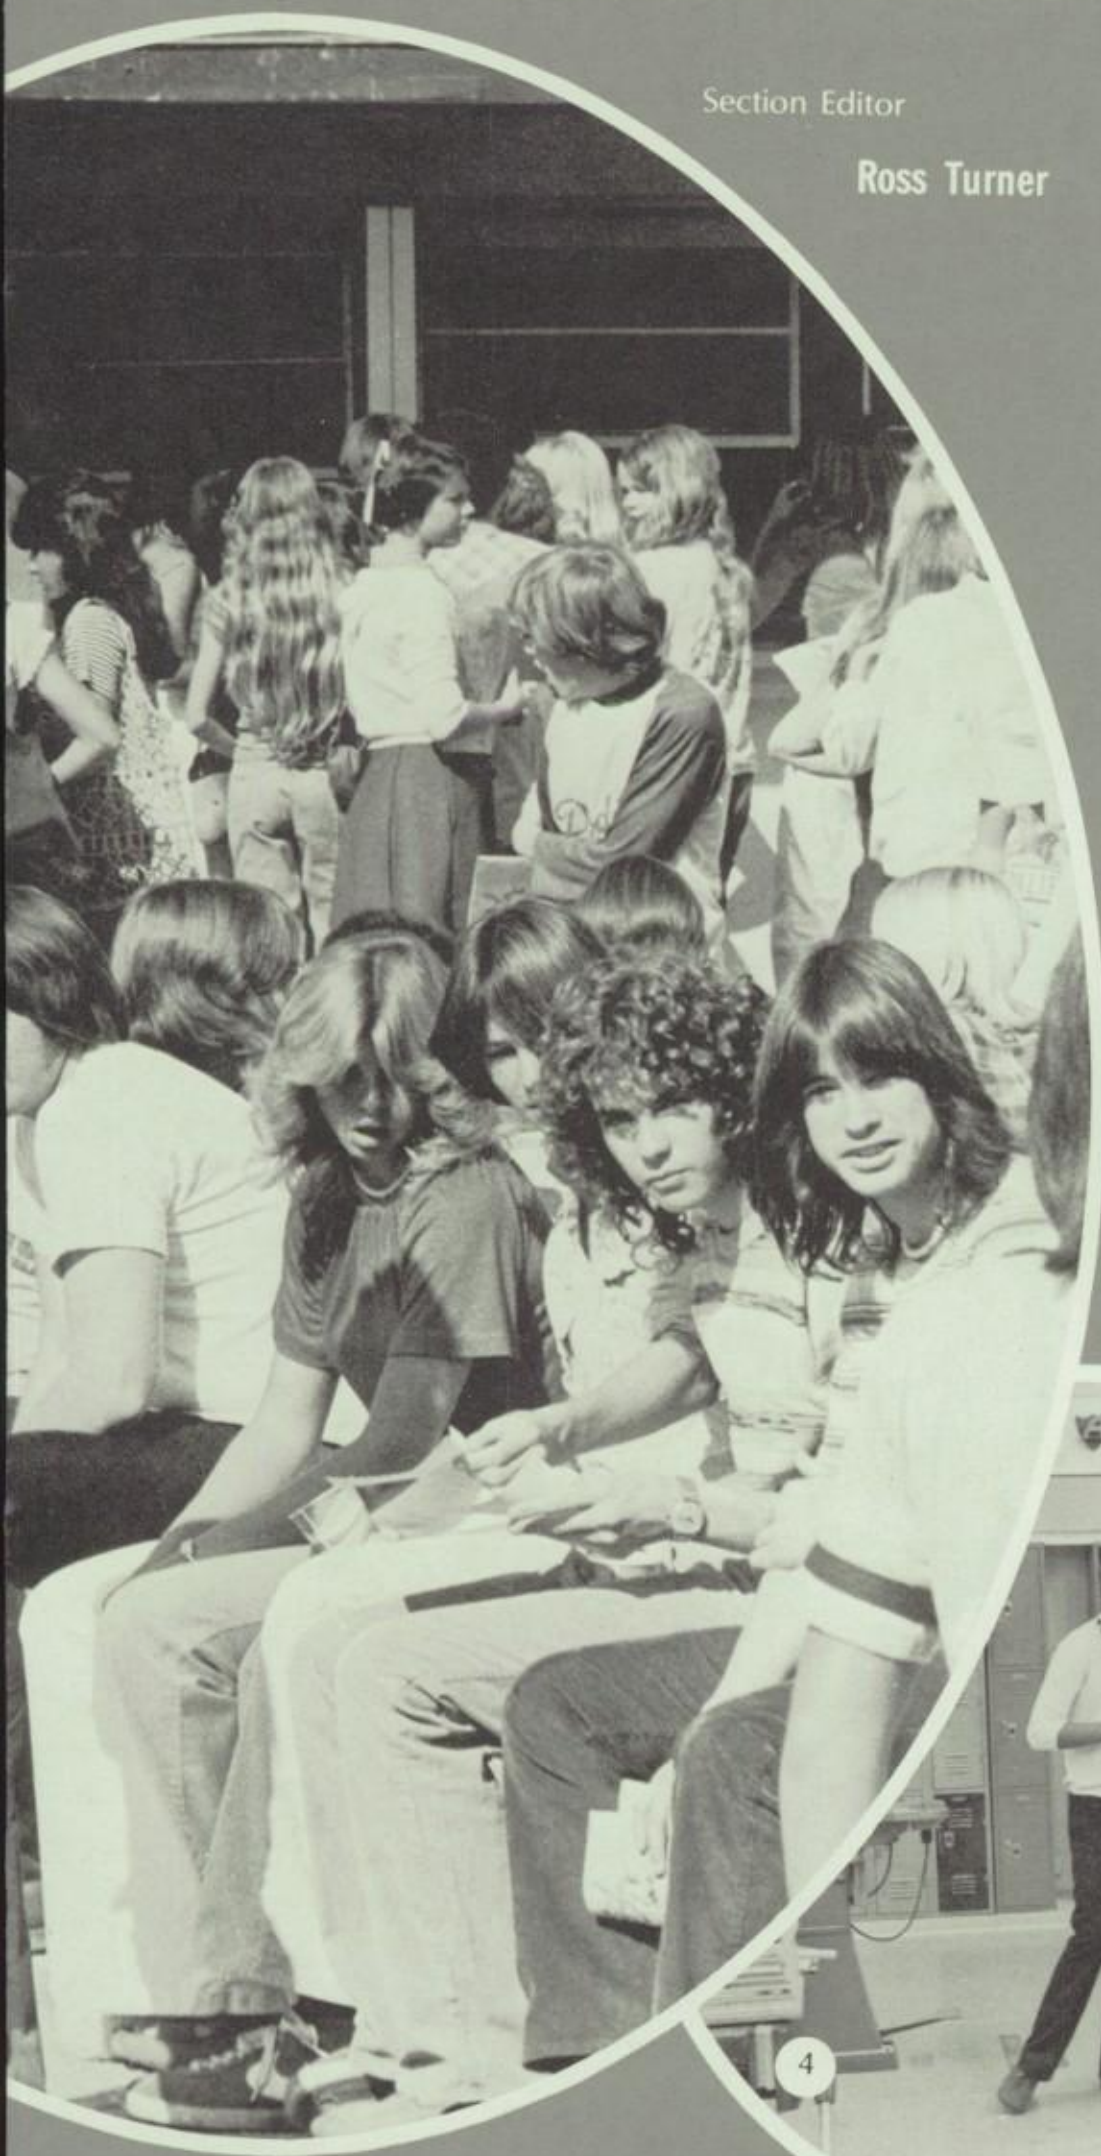

Many vocational classes have been added. Senior Square was built, then changed, then changed again. This year it was made larger for the tree growing next to it. Making new friends, being with old ones, going to football games and soc-hops, learning new things in classes, taking exams and finding out we were smarter than we were a year ago - all these things and more have always been a part of an underclassman's year at PHS.

1. Freshman Russell Slayton spends his lunch period eating at McDonald's. Students have the choice of eating at school or away. McDonald's is very busy at this time of day.

2. Junior Kelly Meeheies finishes test in lithography. Pirate Programs for football are printed here.

3. Juniors Paul Moore, Shon Biri and Gary Hughes spend snack just getting their heads straight. With all the classwork we have to do, we need that fifteen minutes to keep our sanity.

4. Sophomore Eddie Cortez finishes sweeping up in wood shop. This class teaches us how to use tools and how to make things for ourselves.

Juniors on the Move!

The junior class, needing funds to pay for their prom, sponsored a spaghetti dinner along with soc-hops. They sold balloons at the Homecoming game and sold caramel suckers. They sponsored the girls' interclass football and basketball games. They voted on the location of their senior prom and on the design of the senior sign.

1. Juniors show their spirit to win points for the spirit jug. 2. Junior Class Council: Diana Stram, Theresa Salazar, Susan Romberg, Don Murashima, Theresa Thaten, Susan Williams, Colrena Foster.

Wacky All the Way!

Spirits were up the week of November 4 thru 7 as the juniors crowded around to watch their fellow classmates eat, slurp and gobble down pizzas, malts, and jello. Thursday was the big event. We gave the other classes a run for their money. Although we didn't win the Spirit Stick or the Cool Stool, we were close competition with an over-all record of second place. On the day of the homecoming game, we could proudly say, "We are the mighty juniors!"

Food, Fun and Friends

In our third year we as juniors felt at home on the PHS campus. Using recreation facilities provided by the school, we could play volleyball, basketball, and softball during lunch. While some of us stayed on campus for lunch, others got together in cars and went to their favorite drive thru's and scarfed off burgers, tacos and cokes. Also during lunch we bought our soc-hop tickets for Friday dances and sometimes even did a little studying.

1. Underclassmen relax and talk during lunch. Students enjoy staying on campus to eat.
2. Mr. Willard Powers' fourth period algebra class study for up-coming test. Algebra II is one of the many classes students take to prepare for college.
3. Underclassmen relax on Senior Square.
4. Many students buy their lunch from the snack bar. Some bring theirs from home.

Free and Easy!

Along with soc-hops, football games, club activities and classwork, we juniors found time to do things outside of school such as bowling, motorcycling and horseback riding. Whether it's ice skating or going to the movies or concerts, we usually have a list of things to do after school and on the weekends.

2. As an outside activity, Darbe Bingham rides his motorcycle as pastime on weekends.
3. Grace Black prepares lunch for a customer at the Swap Meet. You could find many juniors working there.

Money! That's What I want

Money, money, money! How was I to get money? This dilemma could be solved only by the thing called work. Until we were juniors, most of us got our money from our parents. We'd asked for five dollars here, a couple there, until finally we practically borrowed them poor. Then came a time when we could no longer rely on that seemingly inexhaustible resource we so lovingly called mom and dad. From then on we had a new word in our already bulging vocabularies called just simply work.

Once we found out we had to work to get our money, as shocking as that was, we still had to find jobs. For some, this was easy; for others, it was a frustrating experience. Those of us who did find jobs were fortunate. We had money to pay debts, entertain ourselves, and buy cars to make our year run a little smoother.

1. Robin Beckwith and Jim Cuthbertson prepare lunch for hungry customers at the snack bar at the swap meet at Paramount Drive-in.
2. Debbie Freeman studies hard for upcoming test. Uncommon hats and caps are common on campus.
3. Chuck Beckwith scoops up fries. Many students find part-time jobs in food services.
4. Michelle Hayes serves coke for a thirsty community.

Dance to the Beat of the Band!

Long lines and packed crowds meant only one thing, soc-hop. While the line got longer, students crowded the door trying to get in and listen to the band and relax.

The students enjoyed the long-awaited dance sponsored by the junior class which followed the interclass football game, also sponsored by the junior class in November. The band, "Fat Chance," provided good music throughout the entire dance.

Teri Lindsey

As juniors we were required to take History I and II and English. Besides those we could pick electives such as sociology and criminal law. One big decision in selecting a class was whether to pick college prep classes or non-college prep. Geometry and chemistry were classes we need for college. Classes such as typing, general business and home-making were ones we need for everyday living.

1. Junior Mike Eichorn runs the printing press in Lithography. Here the Pirate Programs for football are printed.
2. Julie Dallin works on problem in Business Machines. For Halloween, she has dressed up as a clown.

Taking It to the Streets

In the '50's, hot rodding was the big thing for cars. A lowered '44 coupe was a young man's dream. To have his fuzzy dice and his girls to show off was heaven. Drag racing, malt shops, and drives to the lake were more than anybody could ask for.

As the years went on and people changed, our idea of a great car became different. A raised car with a new paint job and mag wheels became the look of today. Who knows what it will be 25 years from now?

1. Vans are one of the most popular kinds of cars around. Sally Sausedo's '76 Chevy Van is a good example. Future plans to improve her van are to add a stairway leading to the bed, a custom color bar, a quad stereo, and pin striping.

2. Bobby Cueallar's '75 Trans Am is the look of today. Many new cars have custom paint jobs with drawings on them.

3. Berman Sevilla's '48 Pontiac Fleetline is one of the well-preserved classic cars of the 40's and 50's. These sought-after cars are now collectors items.

4. Sherry Schultz's '77 Toyota pickup has two-tone pin striping; it is another look of today.

Rings... Finally!

As sophomores we voted on the style of the class rings we wanted and we ordered them. As our sophomore year ended, we faced three long months of waiting to become juniors and get our rings. Well, summer ended and we became juniors, but we still had another month to wait for our rings to arrive. However, the month went by quickly because of all the activities that occupied our time. Then on October 19 and 20, the rings arrived, and the long-awaited day was realized. We got our rings, and from then on we proudly displayed them on our fingers.

1. Bringing the rings to juniors is a representative from Josten Ring company. Debi VanZant waits her turn to get her ring.
2. Rick Coons and Bob Davies use library to do a research report. The library is used by many students to study.
3. Junior Shirley Rubeshaw has a cheerful smile for everyone.
4. Albert Plunkett uses tools in lithography to complete his work. This class prepares us to become printers.

Soon to Be Seniors!

After three long years, the juniors will soon be able to walk through Senior Square without having to worry about getting thrown in to the trash cans. When we were underclassmen and first came to PHS, we had to stay out, but sometimes our curiosity got the best of us, and we just had to see if we were quicker than the seniors. Once in a great while we escaped, but most of the time, we got the penalty. But now we juniors can soon say, "Beware or else!"

1. Juniors enjoy snack on the side of the senior square. Some of them can't wait until they're seniors so that they can eat inside.
2. Gene Aguliar and Connie Romero enjoy being able to walk through Senior Square.
3. Work crew finishes remodeling Senior Square. This year a platform and a planter were added.

Sophomores' Ruling Body

As sophomores we participated in the Wacky Olympics and won the Cool Stool and Spirit Stick at one of the rallies. We won the spirit jug. As a fund-raising activity, we sold licorice. For entertainment we sponsored soc-hops featuring the bands Topaz and Crystal Ship. As we look to our junior year, we anticipate a more exciting year than ever before.

At the end of our sophomore year we ordered our rings and looked forward to our junior year to pick them up.

1. Here is a quiet scene of the school. Most people come here to relax at lunch. 2. Sophomores use push-power to gain lead in the Volkswagon race that took place during Spirit Week. 3. Sophomore Class Council, Front Row: Debbie Bell, Teri Hartman, Teri Thaxton. Top Row: Sandra Clack, Lisa Meier, Carol Ramos, Liz Frias, Jodi Zuidervaart. 4. Students chat during snack.

Sophs Take Olympics

The Class of '80 took it all this year. We won the Jello Eating Contest and placed well in other events. But overall, we won the prized Spirit Stick for most accumulated points and treasured Cool Stool for loudest yell. Sophomores are full of spirit and pride and we're proud to be Pirates.

1. Soph Cathy Morgan dresses as the farmer's daughter for Halloween. Other Sophs dressed as witches, ghosts and goblins.
2. Mr. Nelson Munoz provided his VW for 'Big Race.' Sophs finished third.

One of the best things about Paramount is its soc-hops. Most students enjoy listening and dancing to the music. We had some great bands this year. Soc-hops help celebrate the thrill of victory, or ease the agony of defeat.

1. Layne Clyde, Stephanie Santos and Dwayne Kurkowski have a good time rockin' out to the music. Sophs make soc-hops super!
2. Robyn Osborne, a JV cheerleader, doesn't seem to like getting her picture taken. Anyone who knows Robyn knows she likes red.
3. A sailor is seen working on a project in class. This was another costume that was worn for Halloween.

Sophs Take Time To Relax

It was the second year of high school for us sophs. After the hustle and bustle of our freshman year, we managed to settle down, and we tried to take it easy. We were able to work more freely in class because we were more used to the school. Prospects for a good junior year were bright.

1. Chris Wright practices her typing skills. Many P.H.S. students start their future careers here.
2. Sophomores take a test in Mrs. Jennie James' Basic Composition and Literature class.

New Librarian

"My objective as a librarian is to provide students with books and information that will allow them to learn about their world, themselves, and about their relationships with each other. I like to think of the library not only as a place for books, but also as a place where students can get information and feel comfortable," said Ms. Gita Satyendra, new librarian at PHS this year. Aware of students' fondness for paperbacks, she bought several hundred. She also added books to support what the teachers were doing in their classes as well as multimedia materials.

This year brought many changes. Among them were the same lunch period for everyone. Many people enjoyed the time talking to their friends; others liked to eat or read. The new platform in Senior Square allowed bands to audition for soc-hops during lunch. The student store was transformed into another snack line to meet eager mouths and stomachs of the students.

1. Students stand talking during lunch. Many discuss upcoming events.
2. The snack lines were kept open until everyone got their food.
3. Al DeLeew, Bob Weist and Dwayne Kurkowski stand with their hands in pockets.

We've Only just Begun !

In their first year at PHS, the freshmen fell right into place. They sponsored a trip to studios to watch a filming of "Threes's Company", a popular T.V. show. They sold suckers and sponsored a couple of soc-hops. They were the first to sponsor a disco-hop that featured Sun Enterprises Inc.

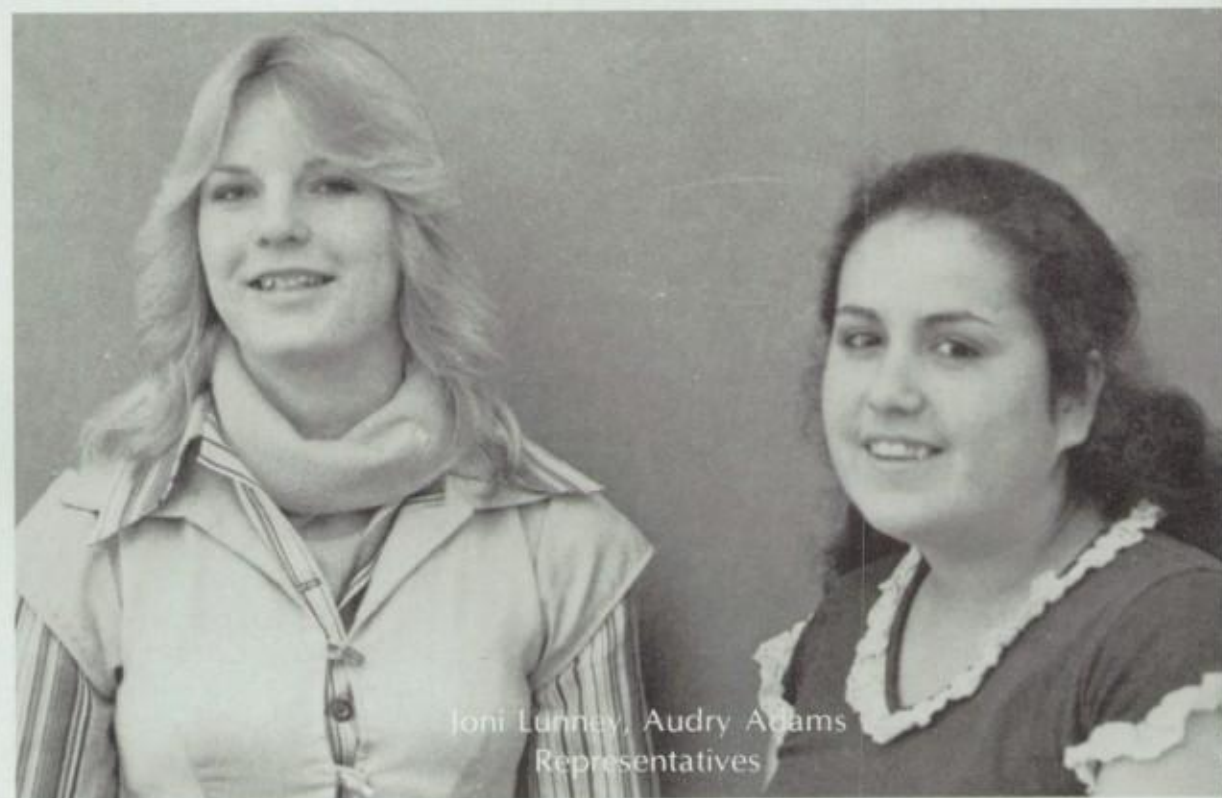

1. Class presidents search for pennies, in the Spirit Week activities. 2. Freshmen gather around during soc-hop. 3. A look at the gym during a rally. Although attendance isn't mandatory, many students show their spirit by going. 4. Mascot Beverly Reynolds is about ready to hit Principal Douglas Rozelle in the face with a pie.

Changes For the Better

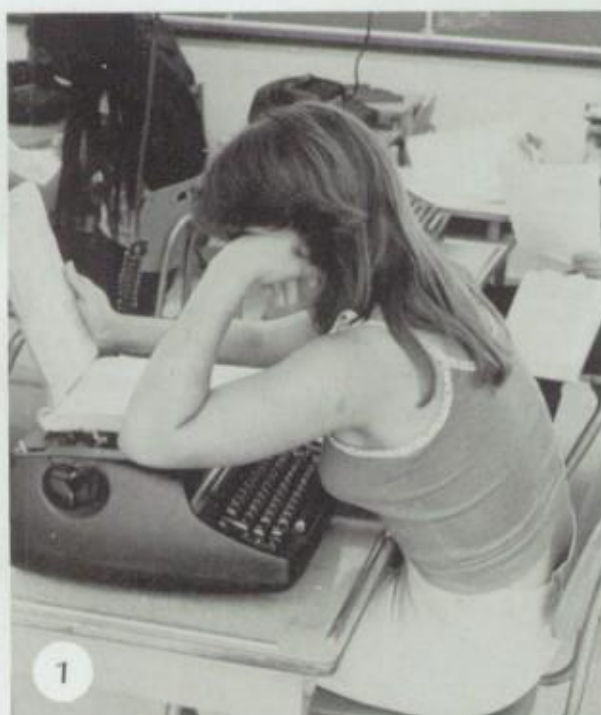

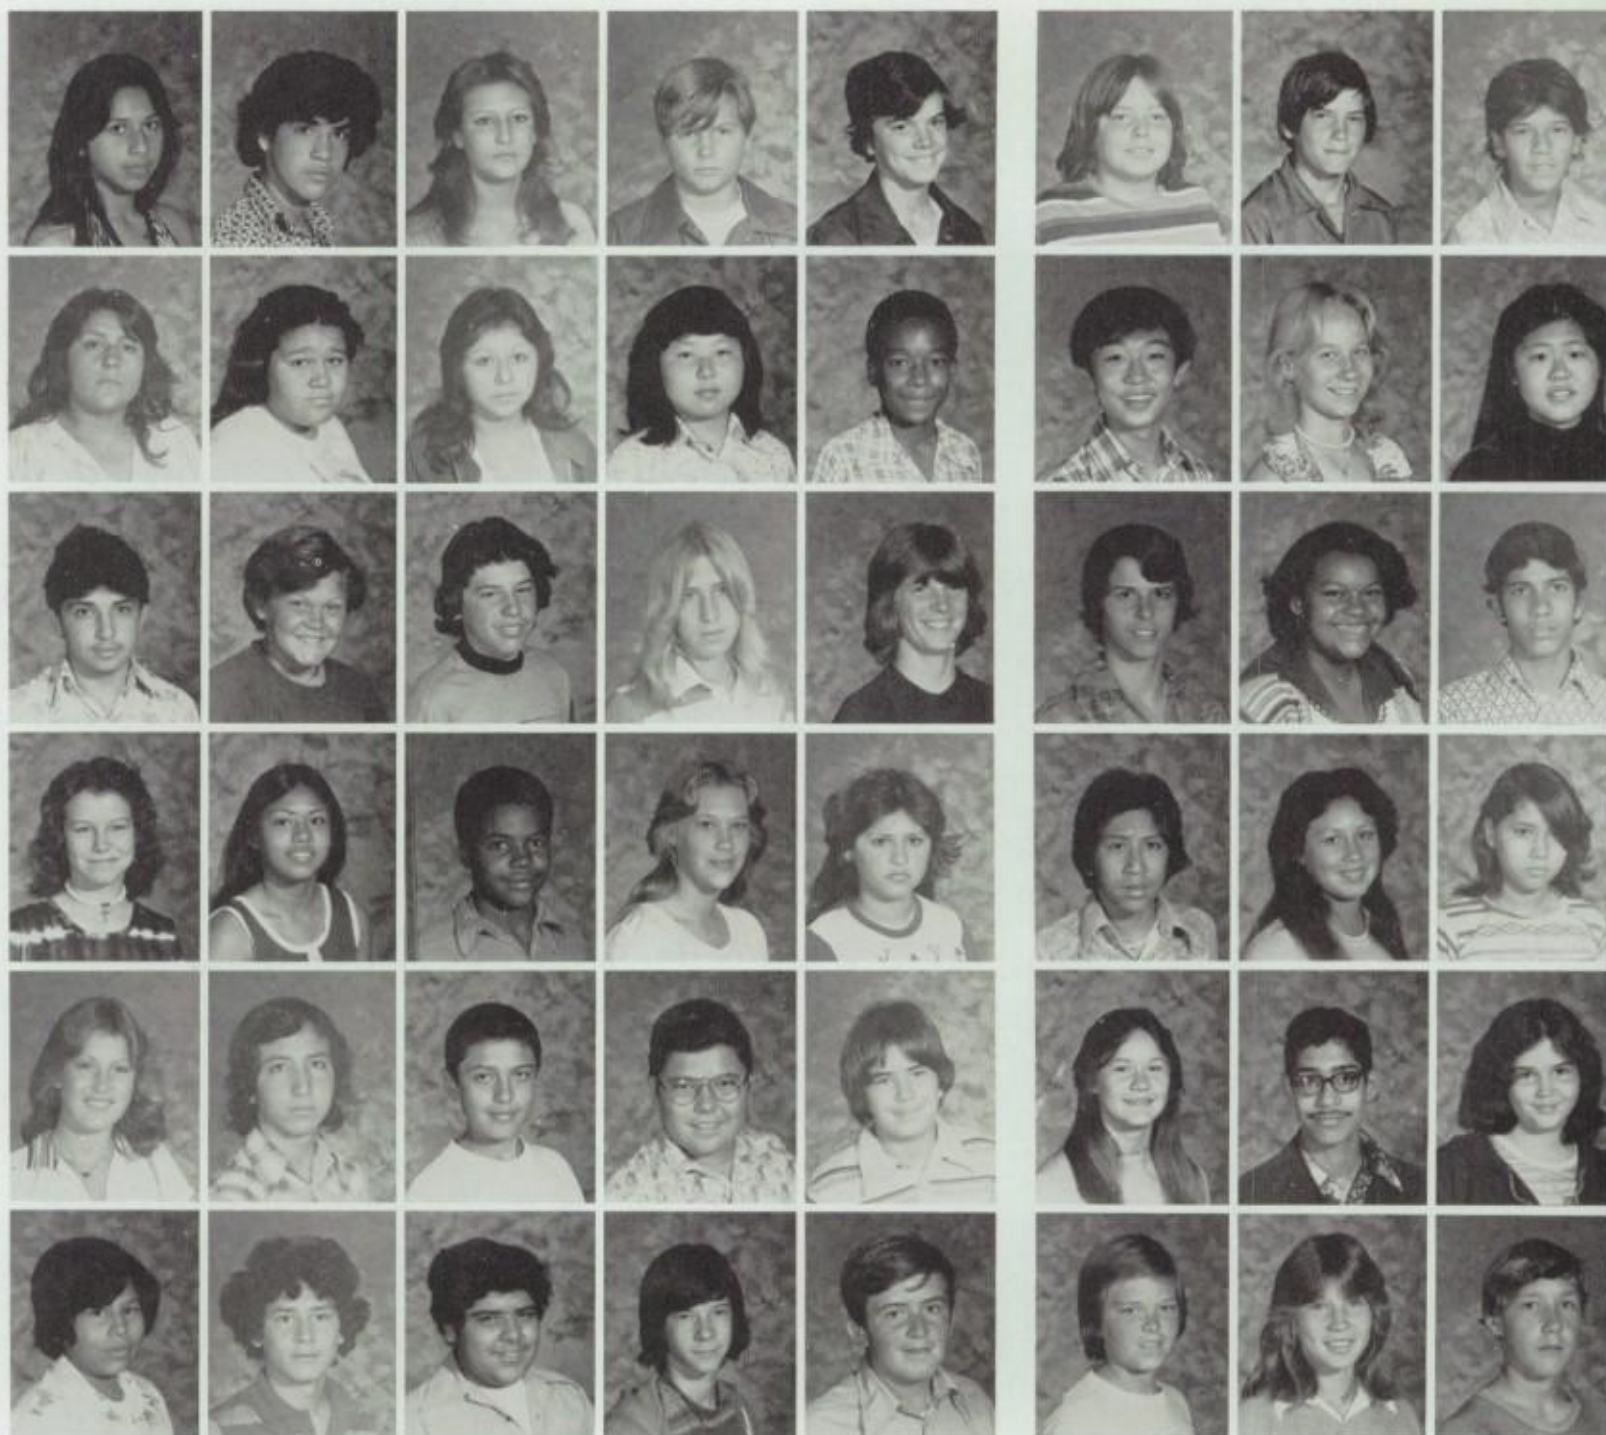

Freshmen came to Paramount High eager and ready to face new experiences. Rallies and soc-hops were some of the many new activities here on campus. Also introduced to them this year was the Wacky Olympics, in which they proved to be a very competitive class.

1. Freshmen Albert Vargas, Dorothy Mozzant, and Susan Burke are hard at work in Crafts I.
2. Freshmen gather and talk during snack. Lasting friendships are formed here.
3. Freshmen enjoy lunch and discuss the events of the day at PHS.

From Leather To T-shirts

Fashions have changed since the 50's. Leather jackets and rolled up levis for the guys and long skirts and pulled-back hair for the girls was the typical look of the 50's. This year fashions were still levis, but cords were worn in many different colors. T-shirts for guys and girls were popular.

1. Today's clothing consists of tight pants and T-shirts with sayings on them.
2. Levis and colored T-shirts with pictures are what most guys wear to school now.
3. This picture shows students of 1964 selling tickets to a sophomore fund-raising event. These were the fashions of the early '60's.

Scene of the Disco Sound

Featuring a disc jockey providing music disco style for dancing, the freshman class introduced the record hop this year. The dance was a great hit and had a surprisingly good turnout. There may be many more in the future.

1. Pirates rock-out to the disco beat. Soc-hops are just one of many activities at the school.
2. "Boogie down" is the theme at every soc-hop. At the soc-hops, students like to do their thing.

Slowing Down

Freshman life was usually fast and hectic. With all the classwork we had to do, we needed time to slow down and take it easy. We found out that a fifteen minute snack period was not enough. When lunch came around most of us went off campus to eat at places such as McDonald's or Taco Bell. Many of us stayed on campus and got food from the snack bar and found a cozy place on the grass under a tree or in the rally court next to friends.

- 1., 2. After getting their food from the snack bar, freshmen talk to friends.
3. A nice shady tree provides a good place to relax at lunch time.
4. Freshmen catch up on the latest news.

In its twenty-five year history, our school has changed in many ways.

Our attendance procedures were better this year because the students didn't have to wait in line for their re-admits. Their parents merely had to call in or write a note telling why they were absent.

This year, having one lunch period instead of two was a great success. The students had a longer time to eat and a better chance to talk with their friends. Also during lunch, students were able to listen to music.

At the beginning of the year, the students had the chance to make their own schedules.

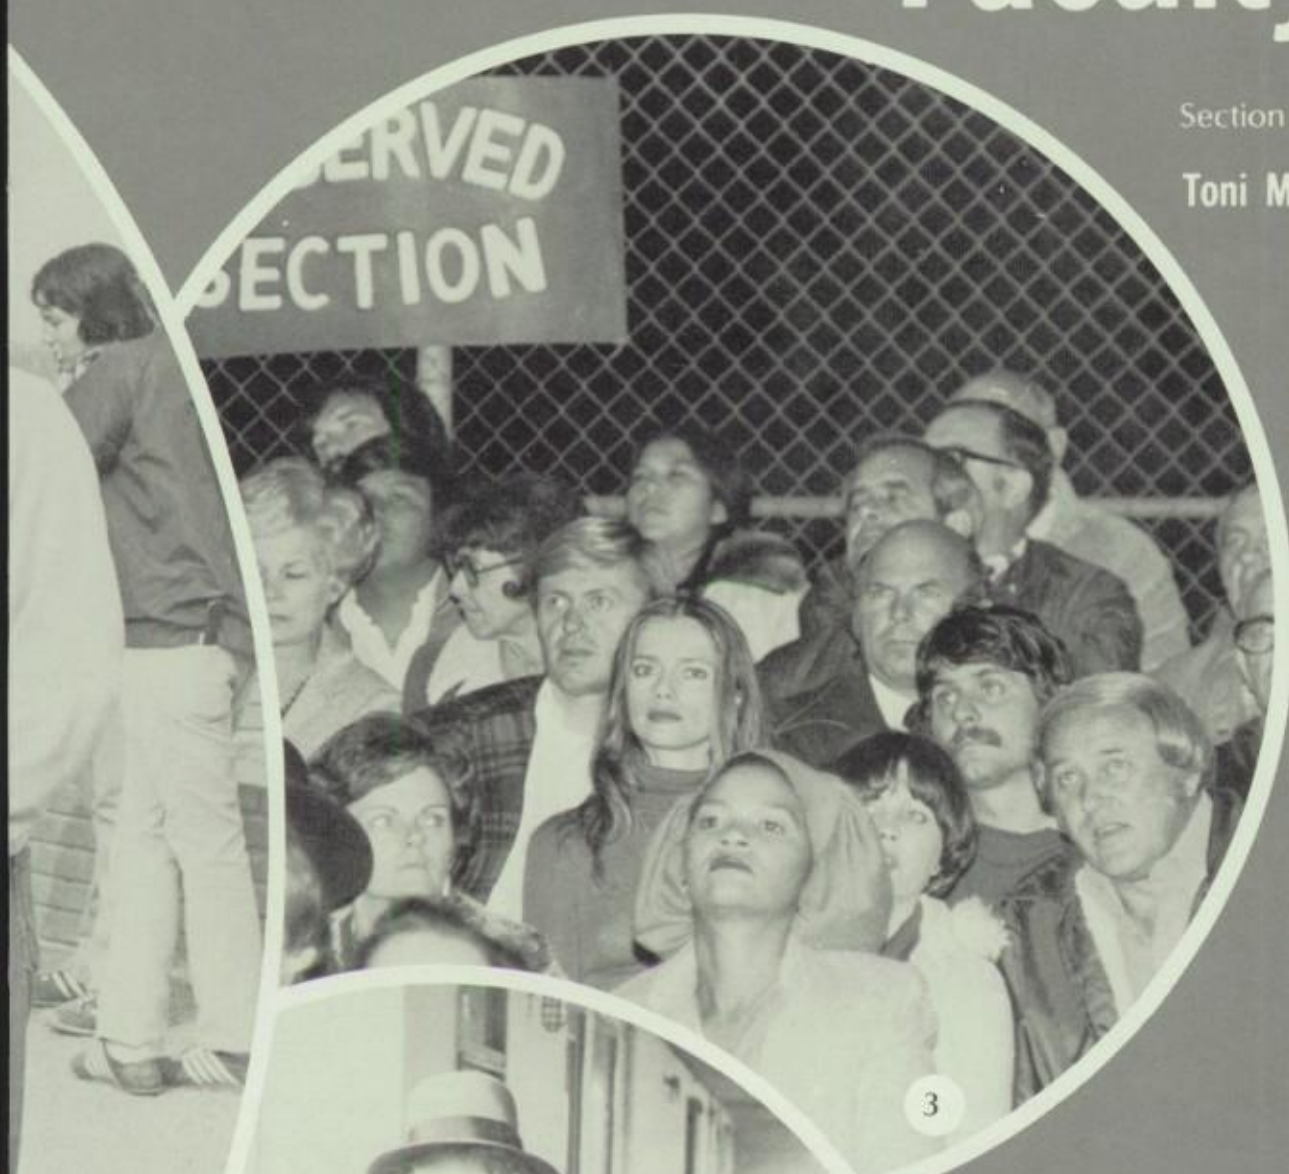

The teachers, counselors, and the office-staff members tried hard to make the students' school experience worthwhile.

1. Mr. Russell Ball, principal of Paramount High for many years, and Mr. Jack Robinson, district superintendent at the time the school opened. Our leadership awards are named in his honor.
2. During snack, Mr. Jeff Valentine discusses matters with Alfred Munoz, Mike Hernandez, and Anthony Smalling. Mr. Valentine usually talks to the students at snack and lunch.
3. The Booster Club and faculty intently watch the action in Paramount's game against Excelsior. The final score was 42-0.
4. Mr. Hector Rojas shows his spirit for the Halloween morning rally by getting dressed up. He was one of the many people in costume for Halloween.

Working Hard to Improve the School

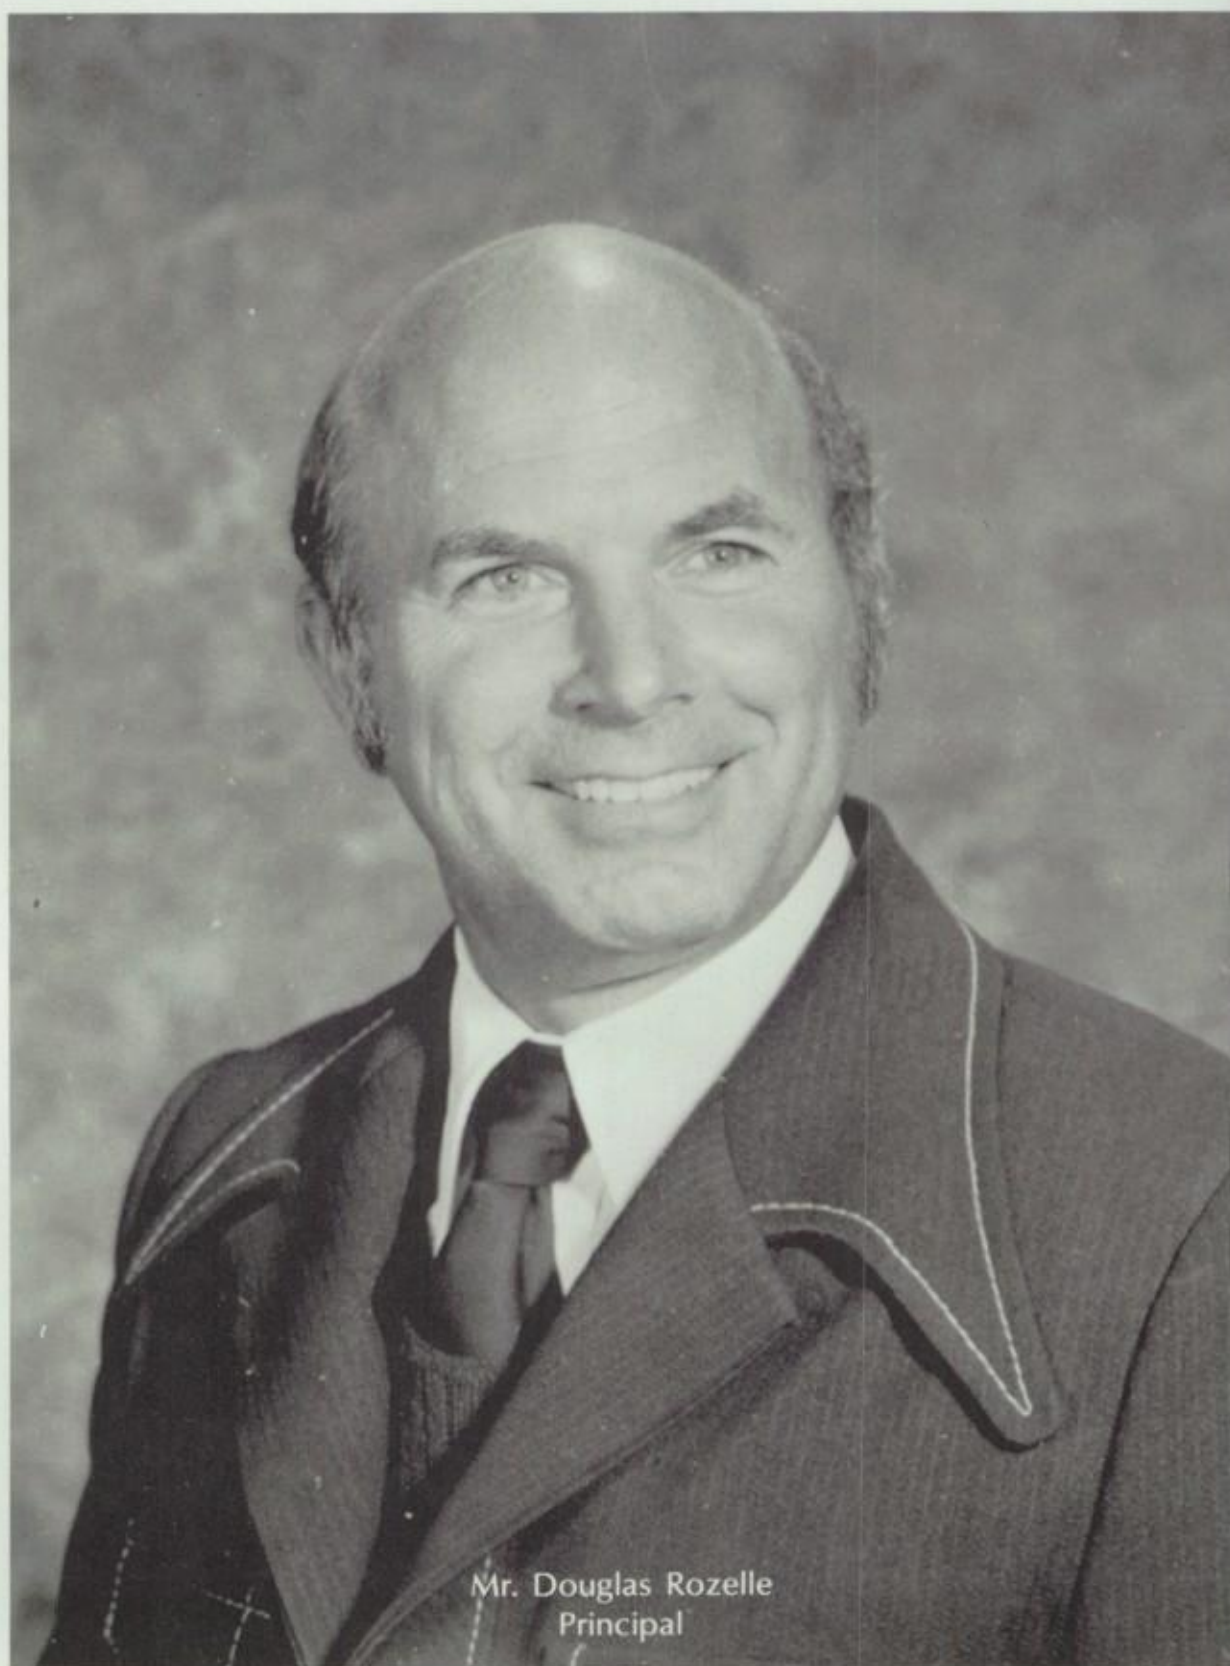

Working with teachers to improve the curriculum, directing projects to enhance the appearance of buildings and grounds, and showing interest in student activities—these are just a few of the things that Mr. Rozelle did to help make the school better.

Mr. Rozelle worked with staff members developing new attendance and registration procedures, and also added a new Building and Trade class. There is new grass growing near the band room and in front of the gym. Plans were made to add picnic tables for student use at snack and lunch. A new badly needed softball field was added.

1. Mr. Douglas Rozelle spends much time at his desk trying to keep ahead on the paperwork. He prefers the chance to work directly with students and teachers.

2. Mrs. Willie Lou Bengston reads a special notice. She works closely with students and parents.

3. Mr. Jeff Valentine approves a special order for Mrs. Claudette Stevenson. The office is always a busy scene.

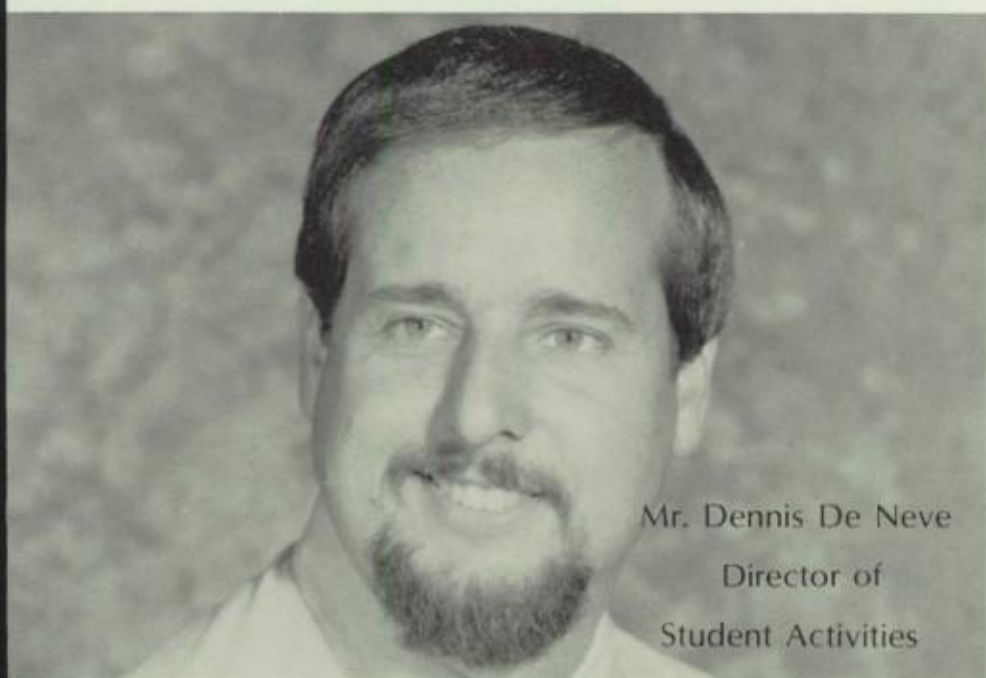

Mr. Douglas Rozelle
Principal

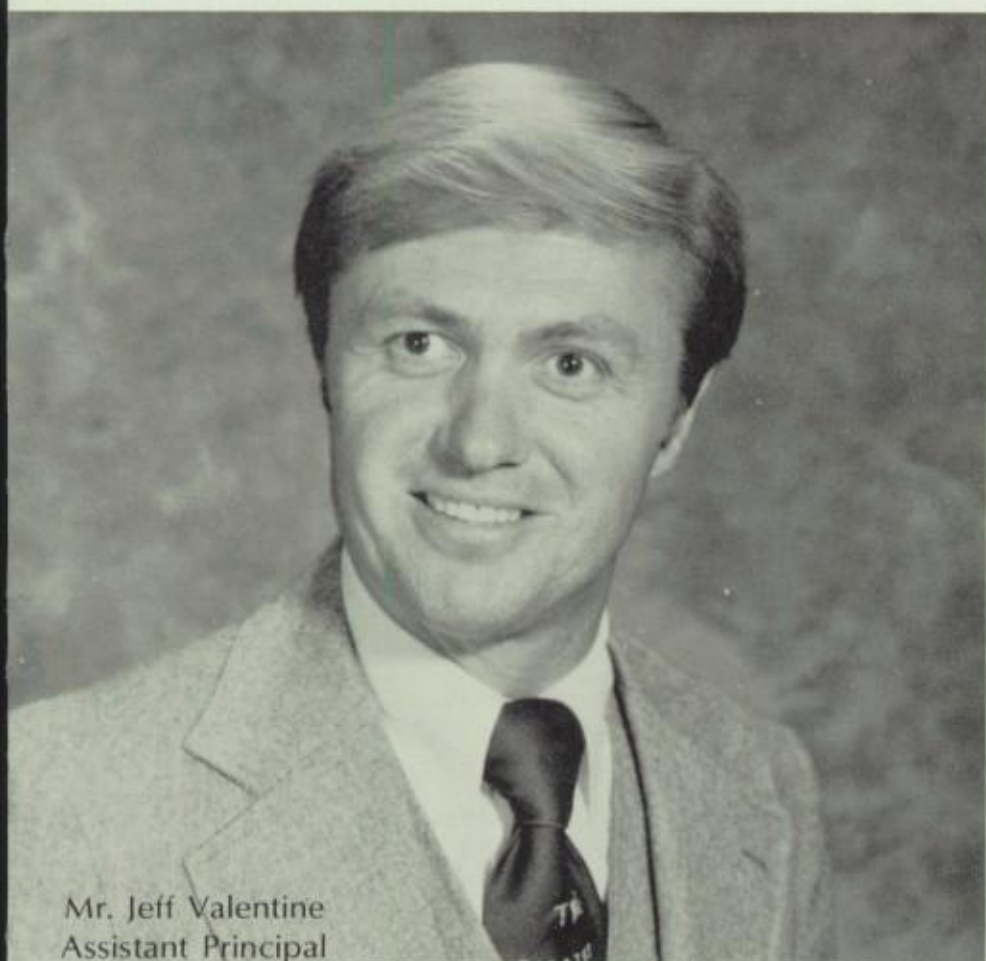

Mr. Jeff Valentine, now in his second year as assistant principal, hoped this year to make attendance procedures work better for teachers and students, have more offerings for noontime activities for the single-lunch period, work directly with ninth graders to help them adjust to high school, and to coordinate a fair detention program to help students learn to value being in class all the time. His hobbies included attending live theater and musical presentations, body surfing in summer, skiing in winter, and acting as a consultant for raising and choosing indoor plants.

Mrs. Willie Lou Bengston, now in her fourth year as assistant principal at PHS, handled needs and complaints of teachers and encouraged projects to improve the buildings and grounds and make them comfortable for both students and teachers. She attended a three-day Child Welfare and Attendance convention to learn of new trends.

She has a son and three grandchildren. She made plans to go to London during the summer of '78'. Her hobbies are reading, dancing and traveling.

Look What's New for You!

To the delight of the busy counselors, the school changed its system of scheduling students into classes. Students came to school in the summer to manually pick their own by taking special cards out of designed boxes. This gave the pupils the choice of the teachers they wished and also whatever time they wanted them. Or should we say "most" students had their choice. The seniors had first selection over the underclassmen; some of the poor freshmen ended up with "underwater basket weaving." All in all, the system worked well. We felt the counselors deserved special thanks.

Teachers Go Wacky!

Tossing eggs, searching for coins in a pool, pushing V.W. bugs around the track — these were some of the games that went on in the Wacky Olympics. The week of the homecoming game was Spirit Week when teachers along with the students participated in the numerous activities. Teachers were good sports and helped make the week's festivities a big success.

Students Get Help

A new program on campus this year was the Composition Workshop. This program came about as the result of the Hart Bill, which will require that by 1981, students who cannot read or write will not be allowed to graduate from high school.

Generally, students taking this class could read well, but lacked the skills to put their thoughts accurately on paper. The students enrolled in this class for a period of nine weeks and were allowed adequate time to improve on all their writing skills.

Under the direction of Mr. Joe Bond, with Susan Baker, John Garcia, and Nora Garcia as his assistants, this class offered a program to each student to meet his specific needs. Most programs were designed to improve on these basic skills: punctuation, sentence structure, and paragraphing.

This class also offered some college-bound students a chance to improve on their skills to prepare for forthcoming college level work.

Past to Present

Twenty-five years ago, this school made its first appearance. With the opening of school, there were forty-four teachers, and of those teachers, only four were teaching here this year. The four fearless leaders were Mr. Robert Knieling, Mrs. Mary Lash, Mrs. Virginia Nelson, and Mr. Edward Sirot-nak. They dedicated twenty-five years of service to Paramount High School.

Through the years, many teachers have been added to the staff. This year, nine new teachers joined the faculty. They were Mrs. Christine Aiken, M s. Celeste DiCoudres, Mr. Lloyd Heavin, Mr. Robert Leland, Miss Robyn McCormick, Mr. Phil Pitchford, Miss Gita Satyendra, Miss Susan Seitelman, and Miss Aubrey Trass. Working Together

Fixing lights, preparing food, and keeping the campus safe for us—that's what our hard-working staff did during the year. They were busy and competent helpers. Much of their work was after school hours. The custodians worked at basketball games. The cafeteria staff did their best to provide nutritious meals for us.

Sports

What a change! When the "Dust Bowl" opened in 1953, Paramount was in the Coast League, which was one of the toughest leagues in Southern California. While in the Coast League, we took a league championship in 1958. In the playoffs we lost a hard-fought game to Santa Monica. We then changed to the San Gabriel Valley League where we enjoyed some good years. During our stay in the SGVL, we took the basketball championship in 1974 and again in 1975, and the wrestling team took the CIF title in 1975 besides the league title the year before.

In the 1976-1977 school year, we switched from the San Gabriel Valley to the Suburban League, which consists of Bellflower, Artesia, Mayfair, Neff, Glenn, and Excelsior. In the Suburban League, our presence has already been felt. In just two years we have made the playoffs in basketball, took league in JV tennis, finished in the top two in wrestling and barely missed the playoffs the last two years in football.

Many fond memories have been stored-up in the past 25 years, and sports have contributed a lot. We'll never forget those exciting football games or those last-minute baskets to clinch a win. The championships, the wins, the exciting moment after a touchdown, or the feeling after running a hard mile become silver memories to live on.

High Rank in CIF

Our goals were set high this season. With a lot of hard work and pain, we grew closer together. We got tough and held our opponents to only 97 points total for the season, and we registered 3 shutouts along with our tremendous sum of 221 total points scored.

In our season opener we shutout Mayfair 13-0. This victory was a great confidence-builder. Our next opponent was Norwalk, which we played at Excelsior Stadium. Going into this game with our heads held high, we were humbled when Karl Atkinson received a stunning blow to his right leg only 30 seconds into the game. After a half-hour game delay, Karl was taken from the field with a broken leg. Norwalk went on to defeat us 27-7.

We next played our arch rival Bellflower. We smashed them 41-21. This left us with a league record of 2-1. Our next game was against Neff. After a bad start, we finally got moving in the fourth quarter. With only 5 minutes left in the game, quarterback-to-receiver combinations put us within 3 points, 18-21. An onside kick gave us the ball, but bad calls by referees blew the game for us.

After being rated in CIF for the entire year, the showdown came against the Artesia Pioneers for a CIF playoff berth, but here we faced a 9-21 defeat again.

The Pirates showed class and spunk by cremating Glenn at Homecoming 27-0. The final league record was 4-3, putting us into a three-way tie for third place, the best finish for our team since 1958.

Top players were Johnny Jackson, all-league, Tony Loia, all-league, Mike Matyus, all-league, Mike Foote, all-league. For honorable mention were Scott Jones, Jericho Toilolo, Wayne Dulio, Allen Korbe, Chuck Beckwith, Jack Yinger, Brett Whittaker, Andy Peralta, and Bill Costa.

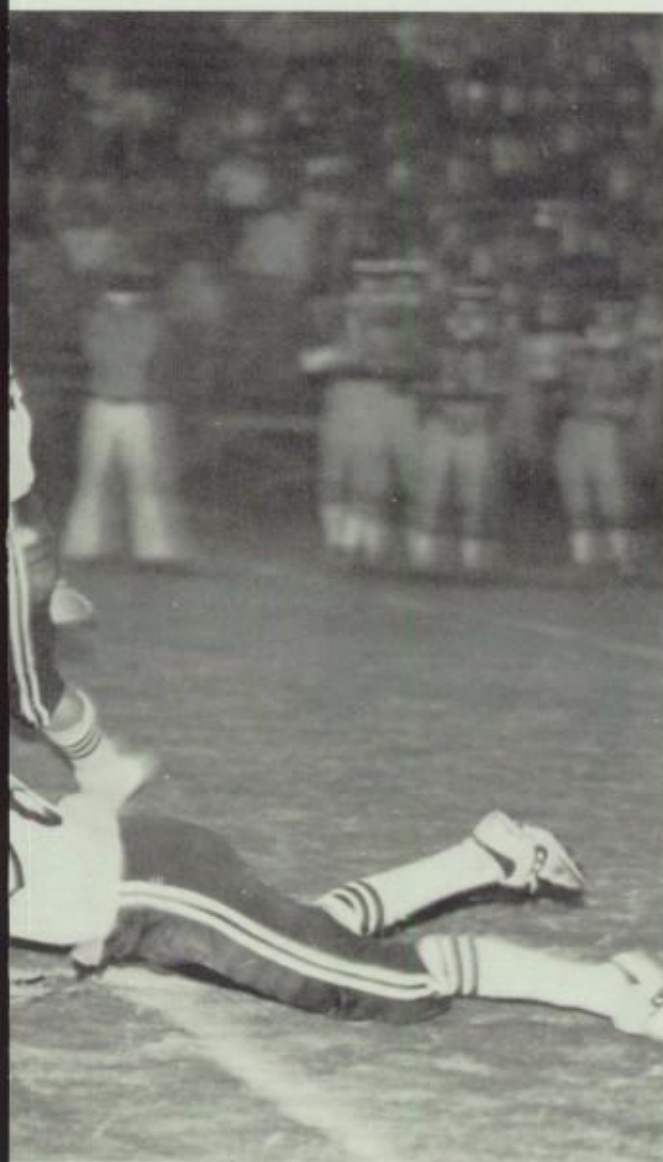

1. Johnny Jackson, co-captain for the Pirates, runs for a touchdown against Neff, one of the league's toughest teams.
2. Bellflower has the ball, but the mighty varsity defense gets it back after a fumble.

Despite the shortage of players, the JV's still managed to play four games. They won one and lost a real tough one to Mayfair, while dropping the other two.

In the game against Keppel, which the Pirates won 36-0, Scott Jones, the quarterback, threw several touchdowns, which enabled the Pirates, with a lot of help from the defense, to shut out Keppel.

Besides quarterback Scott Jones, the JV's received outstanding play from Mike Baker, Richard Baltazar, David Viapulu, Brent Baldwin and Jim Ellsworth.

Sophs Sweep League while the Freshmen Fire Up!

The sophomore football team ran away with first place by winning six and losing only one. With outstanding athletes on the team such as Mark Hayes playing tailback, Dennis Holbert as split end, Robin Beckwith in the backfield and Glenn Clussman as nose guard our sophs showed that they were aggressive and talented. It took stamina and hard work to be able to stay through all of the practices, knowing that they might be sitting on the bench most of the game.

Coming into high school and wanting to play football can be scary and sometimes a trying experience for freshmen. The frosh football team fought hard and long to show what the Class of '81 had to offer. After tough losses to Mayfair and Artesia, the freshmen came in 3rd place in league action. Helping the team have a good season were Russell Anderson, Tino DeLaCruz and Martin Espitia.

1. Cliff Avery returns a kick-off against Artesia. This was one of the most exciting plays of the game.

Love Makes a Difference

Although the varsity didn't rank high in league standings, we had a good individual player in Sue Durand. With her exceptional play, she led the varsity to several victories. Also contributing to the team were Chris Wright, Melody Drechsler, Carolyn Fredrickson, Mary Morgan, Nora Goss, Tracy Matsumoto, Phyllis Wells and Sharon Lamphear.

In the match against Excelsior, Paramount trounced their varsity team 19½-3. Along with the victory against Excelsior, they beat Neff 11½-11 and Artesia 13½-9½. In the league finals Sue Durand and Chris Wright won their first-round match and went on to advance all the way to the semi-finals, where they finished fourth.

Varsity Tennis

With a lot of Pirate Pride, the JV tennis team showed what they could do by winning five of their last seven games. They showed their toughness by destroying Excelsior 19½-3 and proved they could do it under pressure by pulling out some close ones 11½-11 and 13½-9½ against Mayfair and Neff respectively.

Leading the JV team was most valuable player Wanda Harris and most improved player Ramona Huerta. Also contributing to the team was Toni Matsumoto, who was the second highest scorer behind Wanda and ahead of Ramona.

In the match against Mayfair, which Paramount won 11½-11, it took a brilliant comeback by Wanda Harris and Toni Matsumoto in the last match to pull out a stunning upset over Mayfair.

Run for Fun

This year's boys' cross country team had a rough season. Although they won only one of eight meets, they were very competitive. The team worked out very hard after school and on weekends.

The girls' cross country team, however, had a good season. Finishing with a three and four record, the girls' team had a bright spot in Lucy Mota, who finished a great fourth in the Suburban League Finals.

Varsity Digs for Gold

Working together is a factor in any team competition. But for Varsity Volleyball, winning wasn't everything. This year's Varsity record was four and ten, and maybe this wasn't the best team to pass through Paramount High, but it was one that will be remembered. Close games, hard times, and having fun together made up the good memories that will remain with the 1977 Volleyball team members.

Varsity Volleyball

This year the junior varsity volleyball had a very good season. The team played better than the 6-8 record indicated. They lost some very close, tough matches to Norwalk 13-15 and to Neff 13-15, 15-13 and 14-16. In the first game against Bellflower, Paramount won due to a good comeback in the third game. After losing 3-15 in the first game, the team came back and won the second 15-7. Trailing early in the third game, the Pirates came back to clinch a 16-14 win.

7. Joni Lunney and Melinda Sessions both dig for the ball. Both Melinda and Joni enjoyed this year's volleyball team and plan to go out next year.

8. Susan Romberg spikes the ball in game against Mayfair. Sue is only a junior and will workout hard for the summer in hopes of making the varsity team.

9. Vickey Casey sets ball up for her teammates. This is one of just many exercises that the volleyball team has to do along with a warm-up job before the game.

10. Brenda Davis looks intently as the junior varsity team warms up outside of gym. Brenda is the junior varsity coach and being only her second year in volleyball, she looks forward to many coaching years in volleyball.

Ritt's Boys "Fly" to CIF

After winning 11 and losing only 2 in league play, the close of the season approached.

With the Suburban League Championship on the line and Paramount hosting arch-rival Bellflower for a share of the title. A victory would place us in the number-one spot to represent our league in the CIF playoffs. Trailing 29-25 at half-time, the Pirates came on strong in the third quarter to go on top by 6 entering the fourth period. With 1:50 remaining, Bob Cuellar was fouled and the free-throw shot put Paramount ahead for good. Then with 26 seconds left, the staller, Art Enriquez, was fouled, and he sank both free-throws putting Paramount ahead by 3. Bellflower put a shot in at the buzzer, but it was not enough as Paramount defeated them 53-52 for a share of the Suburban crown.

In CIF action Paramount defeated Sierra Vista 82-67 in the first round. In the second round the Pirates never played up to par losing to the Righetti Warriors 55-63. Three PHS players—Johnny Jackson, Roger Fopma, and Ken Korver—were named all-league players, an unprecedented number to be chosen from one school.

We Are the Champions

After a very satisfying season of 14-0 in league and 21-2 over all, the J.V. basketball team won the league championship. In pre-season the team got off to a fast start by trouncing Warren, 62-51; then they went on to whip Newport Harbor and Lynwood. After tough losses to Dominguez and Serra High Schools, the Pirates went on to win 18 straight games in a row with no team coming close. Coach Jim Cockrill was very pleased that Bill Costa was chosen most valuable player of the Bell Gardens Tournament, which Paramount won. The final was against California High with a 43-39 decision. Dennis Black was named one of the all-tournament players.

1. Bill Costa goes through heavy traffic. Bill was one of the top players on the team.

2. Kevin Holland shoots for two. Kevin contributed much to the team.

Sophs Do It Again!

The sophomore basketball team finished the season with a 10-2 record and were co-champions of the Suburban League. Led by Roger Jocson, Clancy Turner, Scott Jones and Mark Hayes, the team was able to perform well for first-year Coach Carvel Wortham, who was a Pirate graduate himself.

With tremendous teamwork and good hustle, the sophomore team was able to outscore their opponents by scores of 75-17, 70-41, and 86-39 against Glenn, Mayfair and Bellflower respectively. With the co-championship, the sophomores are now heading toward summer camp and a hard off-season training program.

1. Scott Jones tries for the free throw in the game against Mayfair. Scott was a great asset to the team.
2. Roger Jocson goes for one of his many lay-ups in the game against Mayfair.

Frosh Take Third!

The frosh basketball team, finishing the year with a 10-4 record, came through with a winning season. The highlight was a record 102-47 win in the Aviation Tournament, with Andre Hayes collecting All-Tournament player honors and the team winning a third place trophy. Leonard Green, Russel Anderson and Andre Hayes led the team in scoring while John Smith provided direction. Teamwork proved to be the key in most victories. The team played well for Coach Phil Pitchford, a new teacher and coach at PHS.

Varsity Goes to CIF

Going 10-2 in league play, the soccer team managed a second place finish.

It also captured a berth in the CIF playoffs for the first time in school history. Leading the team to the playoffs were Casey Van Putten and Rodolfo Morfin. Their excellent league play made them the team's most valuable players.

The team lost in the first round of CIF to Pacifica, 5-0.

Coach Nelson Munoz wanted the boys to have fun as well as play to win. Coach Munoz had high hopes for next year's team.

Though the J.V. team had no league of its own, it still participated by playing our school's Suburban League opponents.

In their first game, they tied with Artesia 0-0. They then played Norwalk and beat them 3-0. In the next game they lost to Excelsior 0-1. Again we suffered a defeat by losing to Mayfair 1-3. Paramount came back with a win over Glenn by a score of 2-1. They played Artesia again and lost 0-2. The Pirates ended their season in victory by beating Bellflower 4-1. This win put their non-league record at 5-5-1.

Second in League

This year's Varsity Wrestling Team consisted of ten returning varsity let-termen. Placing first at Cerritos was a great way to start the '77-'78 season. Then the team went on to take a first at Alhambra, and with only half a team because of illness, they took a fifth at Edgewood.

Paramount went undefeated during league competition, but the team's spirits were dampened when they were edged out of the championship by Artesia.

Paramount's varsity wrestling team was rated fifth in the Southern Section of California. In league finals four wrestlers placed first, four placed second and one placed third. Steve Shiotsu placed first in league and had an over-all record of 22-3. Rene Thibodeaux was first in league, 10-5; Robert Romo, first in league, 15-4-2; Ron Rookstool, third in league, 5-5; Jacques Thibodeaux, second in league, 14-5; Willie Hernandez, fourth in league, 9-5; Rene Armindariz, 3-13; Al Munoz, second in league, 18-7-1; Fernando Pionon, 5-5-1; Steve Catalfomo, second in league, 7-4; and Ray Gutierrez, first in league and fifth in CIF Prelims; and Steve Salcedo, second in league and first in CIF Prelims at 148.

JV's Pin Down Second in League

Achieving a league record of 6-1, this year's Junior Varsity Wrestling team showed much potential. They placed first in the Bellflower soph-frosh tournament, second in the Bellflower JV Tournament, fifth at Cerritos College, first at Downey, third at Arroyo, fifth at Ontario Novice, and a second at Sierra Vista.

One of the most exciting dual matches this year came against Mayfair with a slim victory of 33-31. Another close but victorious match was with Norwalk, which ended 28-25.

The season closed with both Paramount and Artesia competing for first place in the Suburban League.

Paramount Junior Varsity wrestlers placed second in league and gained much experience needed for next year.

7. Lori Haines gets off the ground to overjump her Mayfair opponent to score another two points.
8. Varsity player, Margaret Gasporra, attempts to score while Faith Miller blocks for her.

Renewing Faith in Girls' Sports

Hoping to renew faith in girls' sports, the varsity team played not only to win but also to have fun. Having a good time and playing together as a team improved attitudes towards the girls' basketball team not only in the players themselves but also in the coaches and spectators. Night games were played this year for the first time. Returning to varsity this year was Denise Fairbanks, Margaret Gasporra, Faith Miller, Pat McKinley, Julie Lopez and Lori Haines. The girls found the joy of victory and also the pain of defeat.

The JV team listened to the voice of Coach Brenda Davis who helped in coaching them last year. The team tried hard to win as many games as possible. They didn't always win, but they gained knowledge of the game and displayed school spirit and pride. The records couldn't show all of the good times and fun the girls had. The JV team had a combination of ninth, tenth and eleventh grade girls playing. The team captains were Adriana Goss and Theresa Thaten. The season started out very impressively.

Hit and Run

With seven returning lettermen on the varsity, the team started off on the right foot with two quick wins out of the first three games. Leading the varsity were Darren Kurkowski, Art Valdivia, Bobby Cornelison, Jerry Wiswell, Steve Madron, Ricardo Stout and Rodney Davis.

With fine teamwork and good hustle, this year's varsity team had improved vastly over last year's. Even though half the team were underclassmen, the varsity had many returning lettermen. During many games, the experience of the players showed up well and they proved to be capable players under pressure, handling the job with maturity and quickness. With this year's young team, Coach Danny Blake is expecting even better results from next year's team to complement this year's fine performance.

Eagles Fly

With four returning lettermen, the golf team was anticipating a winning season after last year's respectable performance. With Mike Davidson, Brian Lederer, Ron Czewinski and Paul Garcia leading the team, varsity started well and tried to maintain their winning form throughout the season.

During practice, the varsity looked very competitive and had high hopes of taking the league title and going to CIF.

With only two seniors on the varsity, Coach Bob Maras is still trying to build for next year, even though he feels this year's team could be one of the best in the school's history.

The Pirates' home course is Los Amigos. In league matches they play at the Lakewood and La Mirada courses.

To many people, golf may seem like an easy sport, but it requires a tremendous amount of skill and involves a lot of teamwork.

1. Mike Davidson swings at ball in practice. Mike was one of the top players on the team and consistently had one of the top scores at each match.

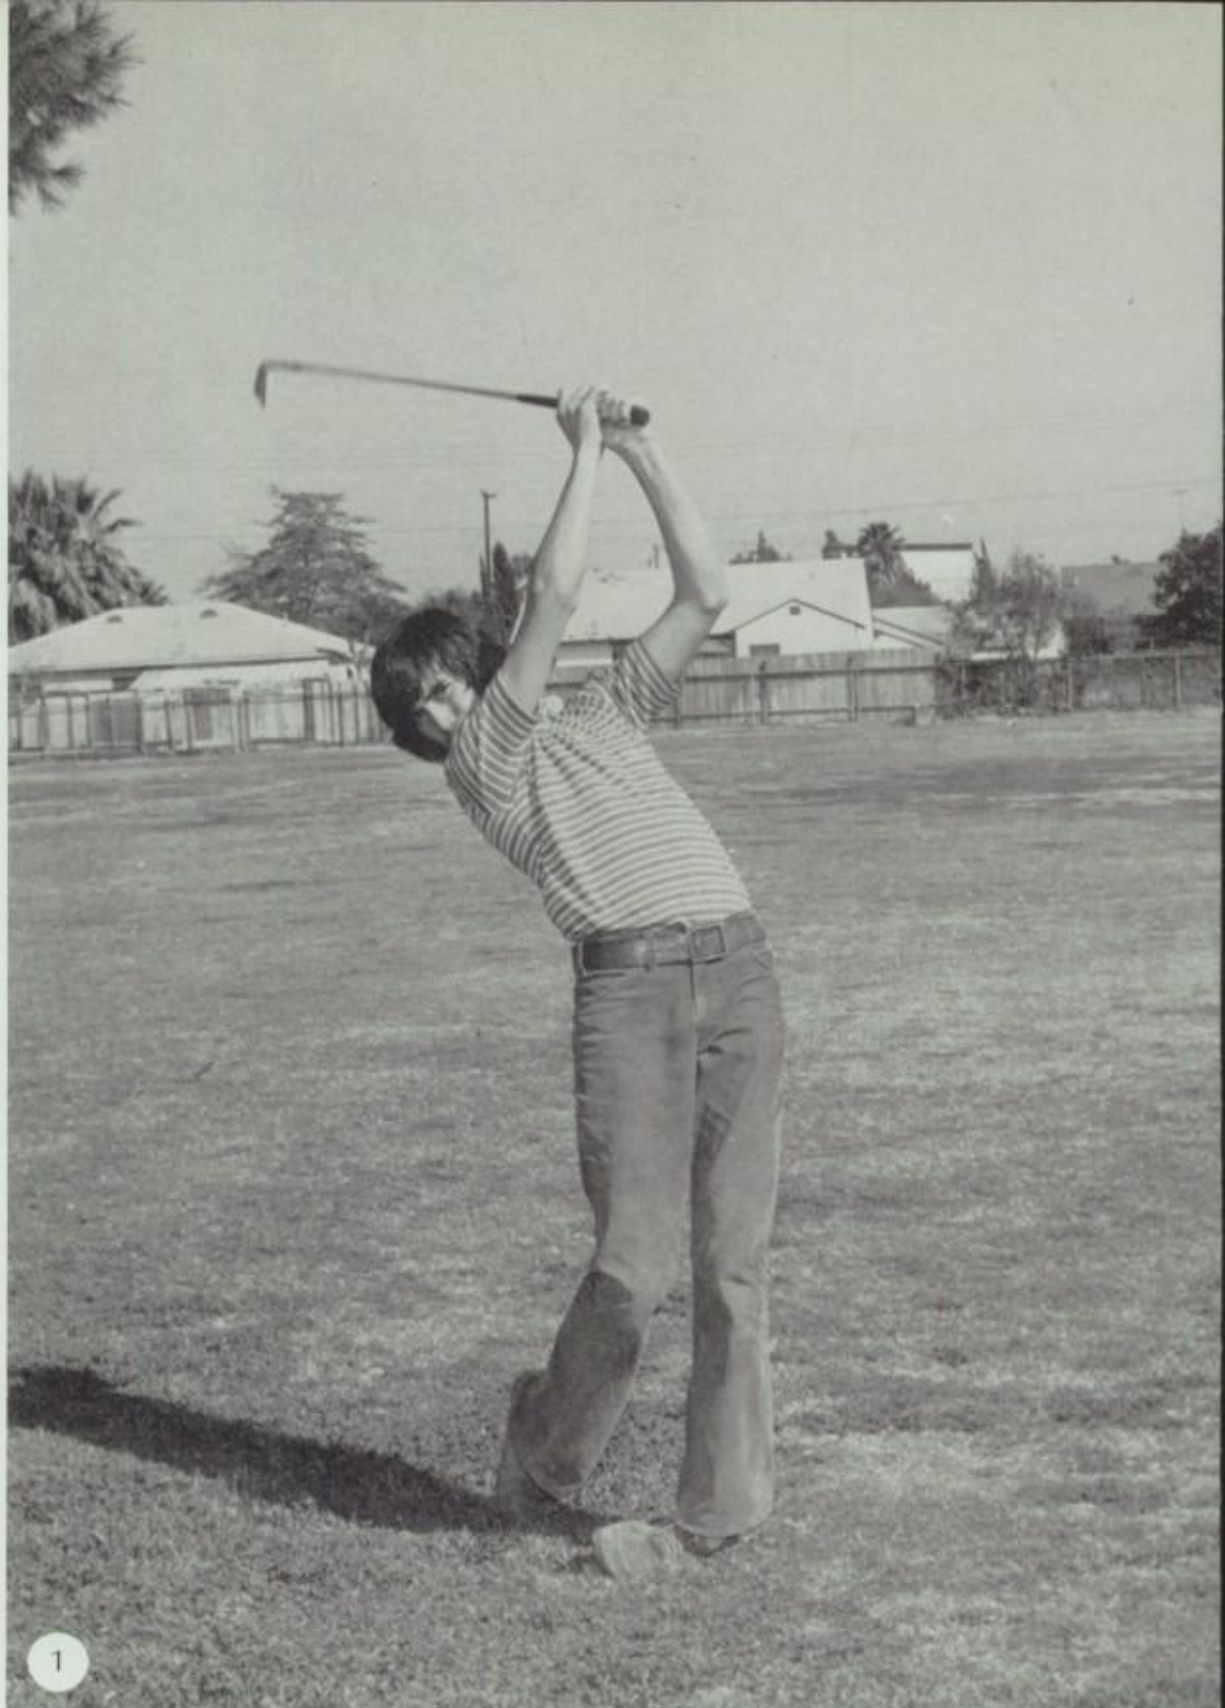

2. Varsity: Brian Lederer, Ron Czewinski, Mike Davidson, and Paul Garcia.

3. Ron Czewinski tees off in practice. Ron is an underclassman and is building up to his senior year.

4. One of the top players on the team, Brian Lederer swings at ball. Brian is a senior and contributes much to the team.

Tee Off

This year's JV golf team looked forward to playing its opponents in league competition. Making up the team were George Dalton, Buddy Baker, Randy Romberg, Sandy Jones and Denver Green. With a basically young and inexperienced team, the JV squad was not expecting a league championship. Coaching this year's team was Mr. Ray Regner, replacing Mr. Richard Hall who broke his leg and couldn't continue coaching.

5. George Dalton tees off as teammates watch. Practicing driving is a very crucial aspect of the game.

6. George Dalton shows fine form. Having the right form can place a ball very close to the hole.

7. Buddy Feenstra shows form. Teammates keep their eyes on the ball so that they can help Buddy judge the distance.

The boys' track team looked forward to an exciting year. With many returning lettermen, they hoped to give their competition a tough time. Working hard since December of '77, the team was itching to get started. Top runner in the half-mile and mile relay was Phil Terrell along with David Green and Mark Long. In the pole vault Jack Yinger, Ed Osuna and Chuck Beckwith proved to be the better vaulters. Cayetono Murillo and Victor Visaya were the best two-milers.

The two top sprinters were Alan Korbe and Kurt Zimmerman. In the high jump was Johnny Jackson, who proved to be very talented. He also was in the long jump. In the hurdles were David Enriquez and Mark Harris.

Head coach this year was Mr. Ken Sutch. He was assisted by Mr. Glenn Kaskella and Mr. Phil Pitchford.

3. Bryan Penn, a junior, leads the 440-yard run. Bryan was a new transfer student who made his presence felt in league all year.

4. Mark Long is on his way to winning the mile run. Mark ran many different races this year and did well in all of them.

5. David Sierra keeps good pace in the frosh-soph mile. David was one of the better milers for our underclassmen team.

6. Victor Visaya gaining on an opponent from Culver City in the mile run. Victor was one of the better runners on the team.

7. Leonard Cruz has a big lead in the two-mile run. Only a junior, Leonard is a fast improving runner.

Girls on the Run.

This year's girls' track team looked better than ever with two league champs, Jodie Madron and Carrie Muelhauser, back on the team. Making valuable contributions also to the track team were Mary Morgan, Colene Davidson, and Lucy Mota. All the girls put a lot of hard work and strong dedication into winning track meets. Led by coaches Ken Sutch, Glen Kasela, and Phil Pitchford, the girls showed pride and enthusiasm in their running.

1. Colene Davidson finishes first in the 880.
2. Kathy Lane strides out in the mile against Culver City.
3. Melinda Sessions runs hard in the 440. She was a strong competitor at every meet.
4. FRONT ROW: Coach Phil Pitchford, Sheila Evans, Joan Fontaine, Connie Ruiz, Ginny Burrell, Donna Platt, Maria Lopez, Gretchen McConkey, Cathy Lane, Alma Aguayo, Luz Mota, Barbara Calvary, Denise Cruz. Contenders in '78 League Competition

Going to the CIF playoffs was the goal for the varsity team this year. After a great season last year, the girls hoped to match it or do even better. A very strong team and a new field boosted the morale of all the team. Working together and striving for the league championship made the varsity team what it was. Seniors on the team were Cindy Banda, Sheryl Bulkley, Denise Fairbanks, Michelle Jacobs, Faith Miller and Tami Tucker. Two ninth grade players, Nancy Black and Nancy Welliver, proved to be a great asset to the team.

With seven ninth grade girls on the squad, this year's JV team was very young. Returning JV players were Vicki Casey, Sherrie Merrifield, Sally Salcedo and Rosanna Ruiz, who helped the team strive for victory. A lot of hard work and effort helped the girls grow as a team and as individuals. Being able to say that they were on a good team made the girls try hard to succeed in the game of softball. Coach Marcella Schug said, "If the JV can put it all together this year, we have the potential to be league champs!"

Pirates Sail High in League

It was an excellent season for the football teams this year, with the varsity finishing third, barely missing the CIF playoffs. The sophomore team took the league title with a 6-1 record, while the freshmen and JV's finished 5-2 and 1-3 respectively. In cross country, the team didn't fare too well in the standings, but were very competitive. In girls' volleyball the team finished with a 4-10 record. Also the girls' varsity and JV tennis teams finished 3-11 and 6-8 in league play respectively.

This year's winter season was truly one that will go down in Pirate history as one of the most spectacular in Paramount's twenty-five years. The varsity basketball team finished with a 12-2 record and took the Suburban League title for Coach Bob Rittenger, who retired as one of the greatest coaches in Pirate history. Besides the league title, the varsity advanced to the second round of CIF, where they lost a heart-breaker to Righetti. The JV's took the league championship and were undefeated in league play, while the sophomores finished first, and the freshmen finished third with records of 12-2 and 10-4 respectively.

For the first time at Paramount the varsity soccer team went to CIF with an excellent second-place finish. The team was coached for the first time by Mr. Nelson Munoz and was led by MVP Rudolpho Morfin.

In wrestling, Coach Bob Witham's varsity team finished an impressive second in league, but were obviously the best team in the league as they out-scored all of their opponents at league finals and advanced the incredible number of nine wrestlers to the CIF tournament.

With varsity letterette Denise Fairbanks returning, the basketball team was hoping for a good season, while the JV's also started the season with high hopes of trying to continue that Pirate tradition of winning.

In the spring sports, the Pirates were looking forward to a good season in baseball with seven returning lettermen on varsity, while the JV and frosh teams looked strong. In varsity tennis, the team expecting good results from their players since most of them came from last year's JV championship squad or were returning lettermen.

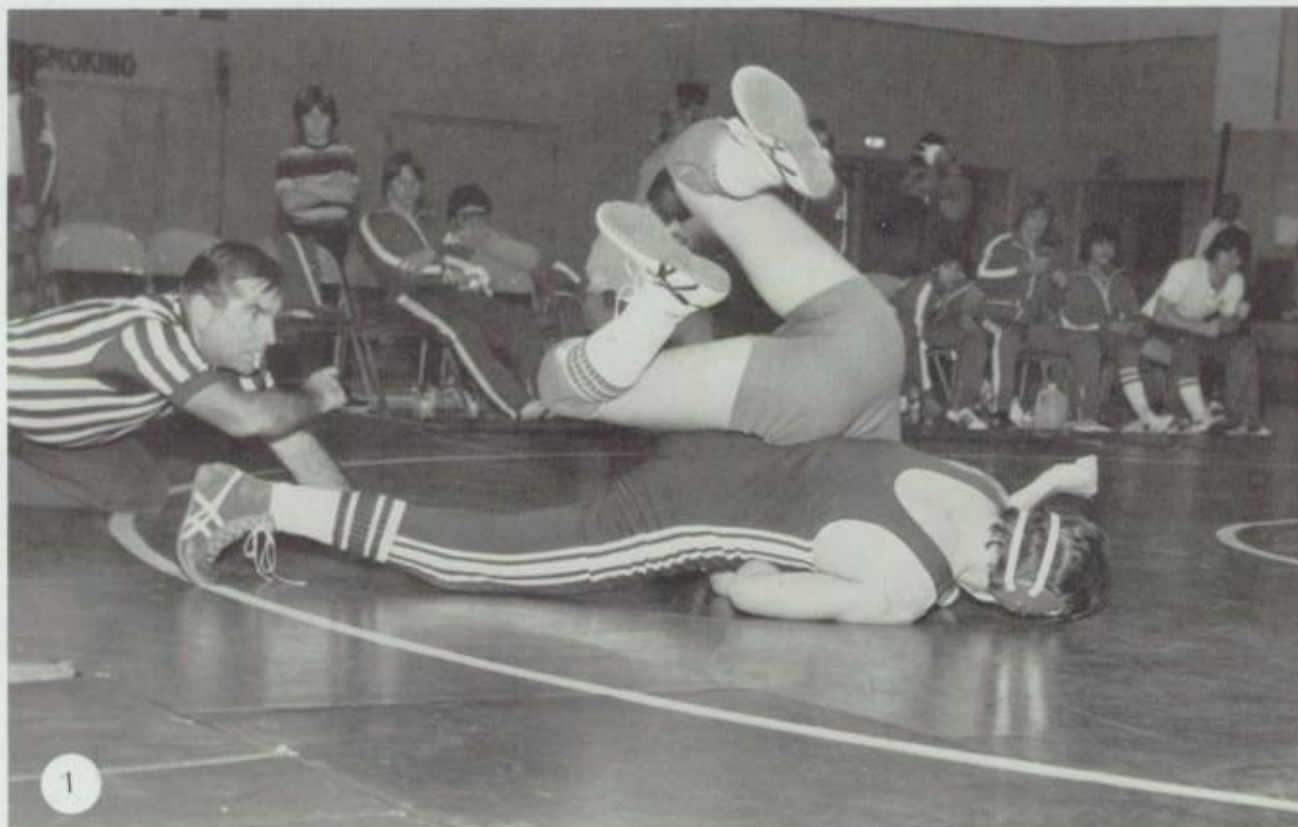

In both boys' and girls' track, the coaches were anticipating a good year, even though the teams were young, while in golf as well as in softball, the players were looking strong in practice.

2. Coach Bob Rittenger. Coach Ritt retired this year as one of the best and most successful coaches in Pirate History.
3. Scott Rees shoots a jump shot against Muir. Paramount went on to beat Muir and take first in the tournament.
4. Brad Baldwin is about to return the serve against Jordan. Brad went on to win the match.
5. Steve Madron swings at a curve ball against Bellflower. Steve was one of the best players on the varsity team.
6. Johnny Jackson breaks loose for a strong run against Excelsior. Pirates finished third in league.
7. Murillo Cayatano runs strong against Glenn opponents. Cayatano was one of the best cross country runners this year.
8. Cindy Banda swings at ball in practice. Cindy played centerfield for the team.
9. Rudolpho Morfin and Casey Van Putten advance ball down the field. Rudolpho and Casey were two of the top players on varsity soccer.

Extra-curricular activities have always been a vital part of the program at PHS.

During the 1953-54 school year, organizations started being activated. The first club started was Girls' League. Then came clubs like the Bowling Club, Sigma Rho Alpha (Spanish and Latin) Club, Creative Writing Club, Stamp and Coin Club, Science Club and a Bible Club. The students had many activities to become involved with.

As the years passed, many clubs were added, and some became inactive. This year we had clubs like the Speech Club, Chess Club, Ski Club, Mexican Cultural Club, New Breed Club, Friends in Fellowship, Lettermen's Club, Band and Orchestra, French Club, and Wilderness Ecology Club. The students still had many activities to get involved in, but they weren't the same as they were twenty-five years ago.

The clubs were involved in many outside activities like the Speech Club competed in many tournaments, and the Mexican Cultural Club sponsored a pageant. The Chess Club competed against other schools' Chess Clubs, and the Wilderness Ecology Club went on outings.

Striving to Improve PHS

To have better communication between the student body and the student council was the main goal of the ASB presidents in the '78 school year. In every second-period class, a representative was elected to a committee that would be the voice of the students. They discussed things like improving the campus and the clean-campus schedule.

ASB accomplished many tasks during the year. They sponsored the twenty-fifth annual Homecoming Game and Dance. They allowed money to be spent on an airplane to be flown over the Homecoming festivities to congratulate PHS on its twenty-fifth anniversary. The banner that trailed the plane read: "Congratulation to Paramount High School's twenty-fifth anniversary Queen and Court." They also had fire-works to announce the queen.

Just before Christmas, Mr. Dennis DeNeve started a project for the student body. He made a mosaic Pirate that will be placed on the stage that lies in front of Senior Square. The stage will be tiled in the near future.

The ASB sponsored the football and basketball seasons with successful results. They also sponsored all the soc-hops, which will be extended from 9:00-11:00 to 9:00-11:30. The student body officers were kept very busy all year.

Corsaires

Corsaires in Action!

Every Tuesday, the Corsaires met to discuss new activities for the club.

They enjoyed selling champ tags and buttons, and they helped in selling football programs. They served a luncheon for the Chamber of Commerce and also served at dinners for the PTA and Public Schools Week. A big event for the Corsaires was the annual donkey basketball game. A team of senior members played the Varsity Club, Boosters, men's and women's faculty and a few community members. It was a hilarious sight for spectators to see their own teachers and friends riding donkeys! The final score was tied 14 to 14.

For initiation, new Corsaire members wore pink and blue skirts and tops for a week. They were also very handy at the donkey basketball game in case the donkey's had any "accidents". The girls were referred to as the "super-duper-pooper scoopers".

Working Together

New Breed was an active club on campus this year. Activities included bake sales and car washes. Also New Breed collected more Cans of food for needy families at Thanksgiving than any other club on campus. They bought jackets and had a Cinco de Mayo dance. With sponsors Ms. Gita Satyendra and Mr. Dave Rodriguez, the New Breed Club proved to be bigger and better.

Reaching Out

The most important event of the year for the Mexican Cultural Club was the beauty pageant in December for the selection of Miss Mexico of the group. Fourteen girls participated, and Marta Patricia Flores was chosen as Miss Mexico with Martha Legarreta and Maria Neavez as first and second princesses respectively. Patricia Cervantes was chosen as Miss Friendship. The program coordinator was Estela Campos, and the master of ceremonies was Jesus Araiza.

Among the judges were Miss Gita Satyendra, Mrs. DiCourdres, Mr. Beck, Mrs. Beltran, Mrs. Loya, and Mrs. Bohn.

This event was culminated by a dance held in the Wirtz multipurpose room with music furnished by Sound Seven.

Among the proposed spring activities were a dance hosting the champion soccer team, a field trip to Knott's Berry Farm, a Fashion Exhibition, a Cinco de Mayo celebration, and an "End-of-the-Year Dinner" for departing senior members.

Snowbound

Under the direction of Mr. Ruben Mancillas, the Ski Club took to the slopes. They went to Holiday Hill for one weekend trip of exhilaration. All day they raced down the hill. In the evening they talked and joked about their spills and experiences. "It's fast action and very exhilarating," commented Mr. Mancillas. At meetings they watched films and discussed where they would go next. Mr. Mancillas, having participated in ski racing and been a member of the Long Beach Ski Club, is very capable of teaching skiing to anyone who wants to learn.

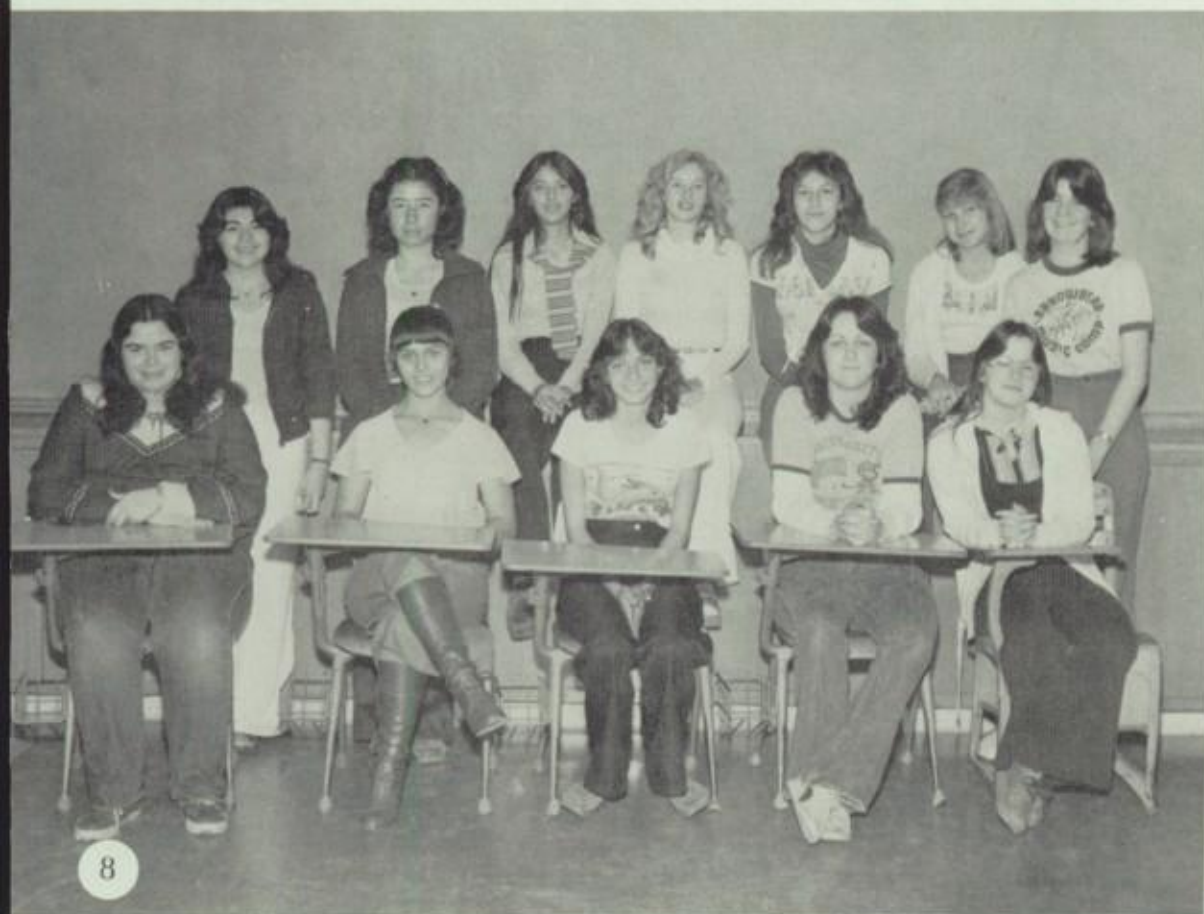

Having Fun in French

If you were interested in French culture, the French Club was for you. With sponsor Mrs. Alice Newton, students were encouraged to learn the French culture and customs. Along with learning came entertainment. The club went to Disneyland and had a Christmas party. Fund raising was done by the students. They sold delicious candies so that they could make enough money to go to Knotts Berry Farm.

Musicians United

The Band and Orchestra Association consisted only of students involved with the instrumental classes.

Their activities included the purchasing of gloves for the new uniforms, jackets with the Pirate logo, and a candy sale that helped raise money for the Symphonic Winds and String Orchestra's annual trip to an Adjudication Festival. The trip consisted of a visit to Calico, a well-known historical ghost town, a performance at the festival held at Victorville, California, and a concert in Barstow, where they spent the night at a hotel.

Mr. Clinton Sawin, adviser, and students made this year's trip successful and memorable.

Letterettes, Varsity Unite

After many successful years as the Varsity Club, the club became the Lettermen's Club. Unlike the Varsity Club, it is open to all lettermen, both boys and girls.

Also new this year was the sponsor, Mr. Jim Monico. Under Mr. Monico's leadership, the club took a big step forward in bringing the athletes of Paramount together. The Lettermen's Club sold hot, delicious popcorn at all home football and basketball games.

Striving to make the Lettermen's Club one of the strongest on campus were presidents Darren Kurkowski and Phil Terrell.

Lullabies and Love

Highlighting the year's activities for Vocational Child Care were fund-raising projects and trips. The group sold stuffed animals before Christmas to get money for gifts for Head-start children, and in the spring they sold candy to finance a trip to Disneyland. Some club funds were used for scholarships for graduating seniors.

Several members of the group went to Camp Colby in February as recreational aides.

Club sweaters had the Woodstock emblem this year for the first time.

It's the Real Thing

"For God so loved the world, He Gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." Sharing this belief, all the members of Friends in Fellowship had something to do, and that was spread the message stated above. They had meetings on Monday nights to discuss this and how to live in God's grace to accomplish it. They invited speakers to talk on living a Christ-glorified life and practical ways of accomplishing it. The meetings started with prayer and ended with prayer.

Those students interested in ecology were in the Wilderness Ecology Club. Under the Direction of Mr. Gene Myers, the club went to the San Bernadino mountains to get a first hand look at conservation efforts of the U.S. Forestry Service. They visited Chrystal Lake while there. They spent weekends in a cabin in Running Springs where they had a snow Party.

Around the city they sponsored Progressive dinners. At Halloween they went to a pizza palace and from there went to visit a haunted house. They had activities like these to keep up club interest.

Here Is New Enthusiasm

Poor attendance at meetings, forfeitures, and lack of enthusiasm—these were things that plagued us in our first season of play in the infant 4-Cities Chess League. However slow, we managed to get our act together against the Artesia Pioneers. Even though we lost to them 3-2, we were filled with a new hope for a successful second semester. Our number-three man was not present for the Artesia match, and they were in first place in the new-born league. Our victories at this match by Tony Chavarria and Victor Visaya were rather easy, and our three losses were excitingly close. Although we lost this match, we found that we had the potential to beat the best. As the second semester commenced, we found this to be true. Our team challenged Artesia for a rematch, and they turned us down.

Our new league consisted of the Mayfair Monsoons, Artesia Pioneers, Bellflower Buccaneers, and the Paramount Pirates. After league play was over, we free-lanced against such schools as Sierra, Norwalk, and Bell Gardens and did well for a successful 1977-78 chess year.

Leaders Set Goals!

FBLA was very active this year. At the beginning of the school year, the group ordered and sold Christmas gifts as a fund-raising project. During the holidays then they sold Paramount Pirate key chains. They donated a turkey to a community project. They completed their service project for the March of Dimes. Second semester plans included attending the Southern Section Conference and the State Section Conference to compete in business skills.

Competing and Winning!

In October of '77 the Speech Club was invited to UCLA and USC's speech contest. Donna Toscano placed fourth out of 350 students in USC's contest. In November they were back at USC for the Bill of Rights Speech Tournament. Cindy Bradford was eighth out of 138 speakers. Early December they competed in Downey High's Southern Calif. Debate League. John Nolan won a third place trophy in Humorous Interpretation. Raeleen West won a certificate of Superiority in Dramatic Interpretation. Judy Boone and Jeff Travers narrated our school's Christmas Program. During January the Speech Club made semi-finals at Claremont Men's College and Voice of Democracy sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars. Donna Toscano was the winner; Cindy Bradford second, and Jim Kulick third.

Plans for second semester included the following tournaments: California Lutheran College, El Camino College, Optimist Club, PTA Honorary Service, Lion's Club, State Qualifiers, National Forensic League and the State Tournament. Speech Team members hoped to qualify in the National Tournament at Northwestern University in Chicago, Illinois.

Organizing for Spring

Striving for a better place to live can be called the goal of every Key Club member. Many present and past members have participated in various activities to help better the community and the school.

Due to apathy, the Key Club suffered a little inactivity the first part of the year, but with the leadership of Keith Hefty and Rick Little and a lot of devoted members, the club bounced back and soon became very active again. The Key Club enjoyed participating in various fund raisers and going to the Kiwanis luncheons along with many Club activities which help build the bond between the club members and their school and community.

Performers on Stage

Being one of the newest clubs on campus, members worked extra to bring talented students with acting ability together to form their group.

The presentation of the play "Susan B. Anthony" was one of their major accomplishments this year.

Directing the play was Miss Chris Aiken, Miss Francine Kessler, and Miss Robyn McCormick.

During the year, adviser Mr. Scott Leland and the members went skateboarding at Skatepark.

1. David Einsele is in mid-air while skateboarding.
2. Club member is at the end of an "outrageous" ride. Each surfer waits for the right wave to take off on.
3. Surf member is working the lip at Paramount Skatepark. This is only one of many things you can do with a skateboard.
4. Mike Whitaker and Rusty Morris are ready to go back to catch a few more waves.
5. Front Row: Darrel Einsele, Mike Duran, Rusty Morris, Susan Fredericks, Bill Nelson. Top Row: Jeff Einsele, Steve Martin, Mike Whittaker, David Einsele, Keven Hitchcock, Ruben Figueroa, Mr. Scott Leland.

United in Effort

The Interclub council got together this year and discussed having a club day and the revision of club constitutions.

The ICC was made up of representatives from all the different clubs that existed on campus. The group was under the direction of Mr. Dennis DeNeve, the school's activity director.

1. Front Row: Sharon Rosa, Teresa Salazar, Jesus Araizu, Rebekah Street, Colrena Foster. Top Row: Pareicia Flores, Maria Neavez, Willie Hernande Keith Hefty, Victor Visaya, Liz Peterson.

Pirate League, sponsored by Miss Peggy Adams, consists of members who were elected to represent the students at PHS.

Sponsoring the Sadie Hawkins dance, the Senior Tea, and selling Santa, Ghost, and Pirate grams were among their activities.

1. Representatives, Front Row: Sylvia Conanze, Sandra Coranza. Top Row: Shari Blankenship, Sherry Schultz.

2. Officers Christina Regino and Pam Perry.

From 1886 to 1957, Paramount was known as Hynes-Clearwater, a small dairy community. But as businesses came in and residential areas grew, the need was felt to become incorporated. This brought about a conflict among some of the residents. Some wanted the new city to be called Hynes; others felt it should be named Clearwater. Finally, the people decided on a name—"Paramount." So, in 1957, the little dairy community became the city of Paramount. Since then many changes have taken place. A new library was added in 1969. The post office moved to a new and larger building in 1971, and the city realized its 30-year-old dream when Paramount General Hospital opened in 1971.

1. Paramount offers fine parks for recreation and relaxation.
2. Many activities such as square dancing, luncheons, athletic events are held at the Paramount Community Center, located in Paramount Park.
3. This scene shows the Senior Class of '56 helping local businessmen improve the appearance of downtown Paramount. High school groups are still active in serving the community.
4. Hollydale Library has a wide selection of reading materials such as reference books for doing research or fiction books for individual enjoyment.

Makers of Motorcycle Oil Cooler the Apple Warmer and Electronic Cooling Equipment

The purpose of the cooler is to reduce oil temperature 30° to 70°. This keeps your oil cooler and heavier, reducing friction and thereby extending the life of your oil and dramatically increasing the lower-end life of your engine.

Not only does the Apple Warmer keep a rider's Adam's apple (neck) warm, it prevents his hair from tangling and keeps his eyes from tearing. The Apple Warmer filters out dust during off-road rides and provides adequate ventilation to prevent the faceshield from fogging. Great for snowmobiling too!

Paramount Parks Offer Fun in the Sun

The Parks and Recreation Department offers a wide variety of classes and trips for the residents of Paramount. The classes are separated into beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels. People can enroll in classes on dance, gymnastics, tennis, cake decorating, and guitar, just to name a few. They also arrange trips to Disneyland, Marineland, and Catalina Island.

1. The Louie Spane Park, dedicated to the late councilman, was opened December 7, 1976.
2. Paramount residents are proud of the modern structure that was completed in 1963 to house their city government.
3. Paramount's new community pool, located at the corner of Orange and San Miguel, has been completed in time for summer vacation.

Good luck and best wishes to the Class of '78.

Trends in self-expression and creativity in the past twenty-five years have reflected changes in attitudes and life styles. The plain colors of the 50's have become complex combinations of stripes and varied shapes of today. Interest in crafts of all kinds has grown as people have had fun working with their hands. Working with fibers, they enjoy weaving and macrame. They create stained glass windows. They add color and life to their surrounding with plants that they grow. People started expressing themselves by doing their own thing.

My Special Prayer

I lie beneath a willow tree,
My head upon your lap,
The feeling is so peaceful,
So perfect for a nap.

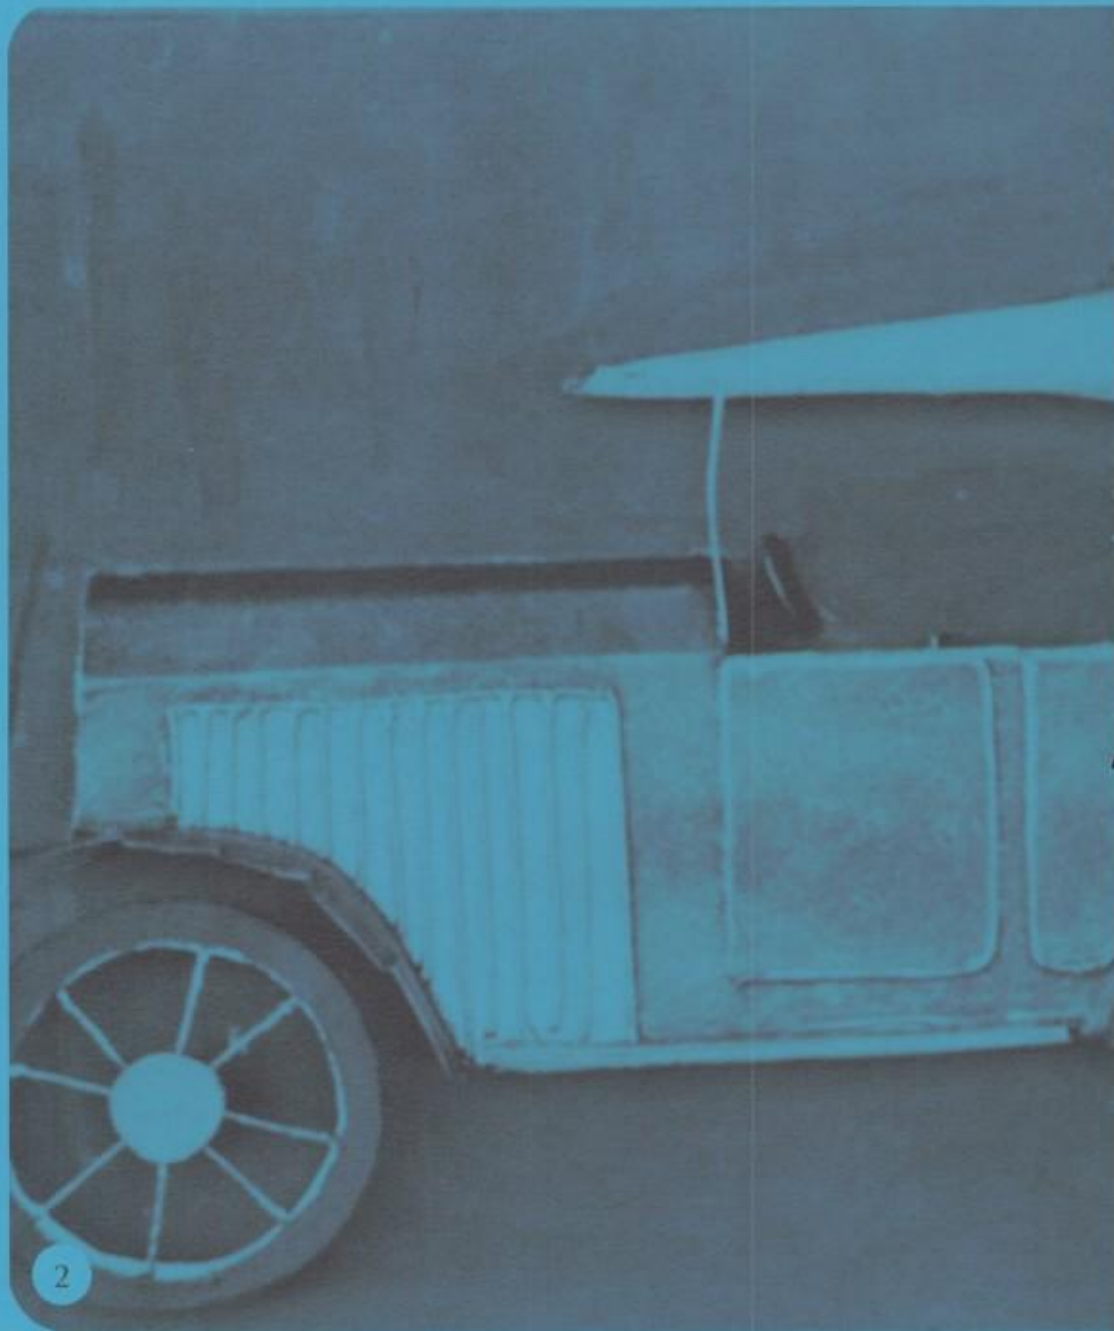

But I, I think of other things
Of you and of our love,
Of how we've grown so close so soon,
So beautiful this love.

To hold your hand so soft, so smooth,
To sit and talk a while.
To touch your tender lips to mine
To gaze upon your smile.

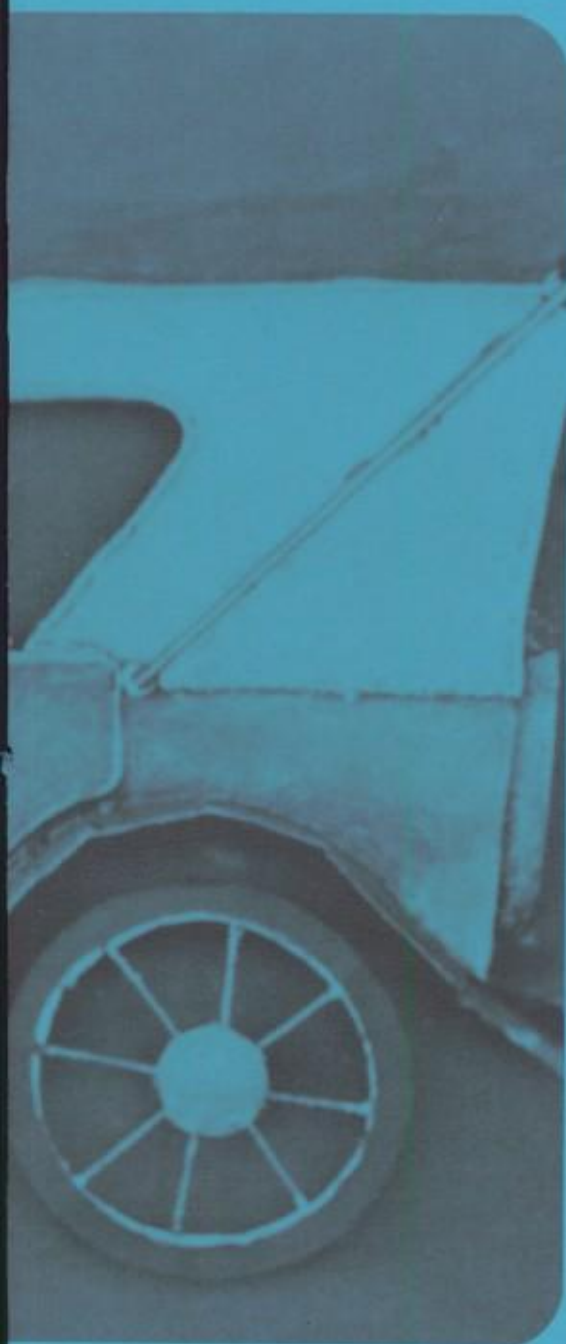

I cannot find the words that say
Just how I feel inside.
And yet, it overwhelms me;
It's just something I can't hide.

I thank the Lord Almighty
That you stepped into my life.
I pray that soon, Lord willing,
You may become my wife.

The Dense Mist

Whenever I Look Back

My memory is thick with haze
My childhood, adulthood - all gone

Just figures moving through the fog
Old, decrepit, I've lost my youth

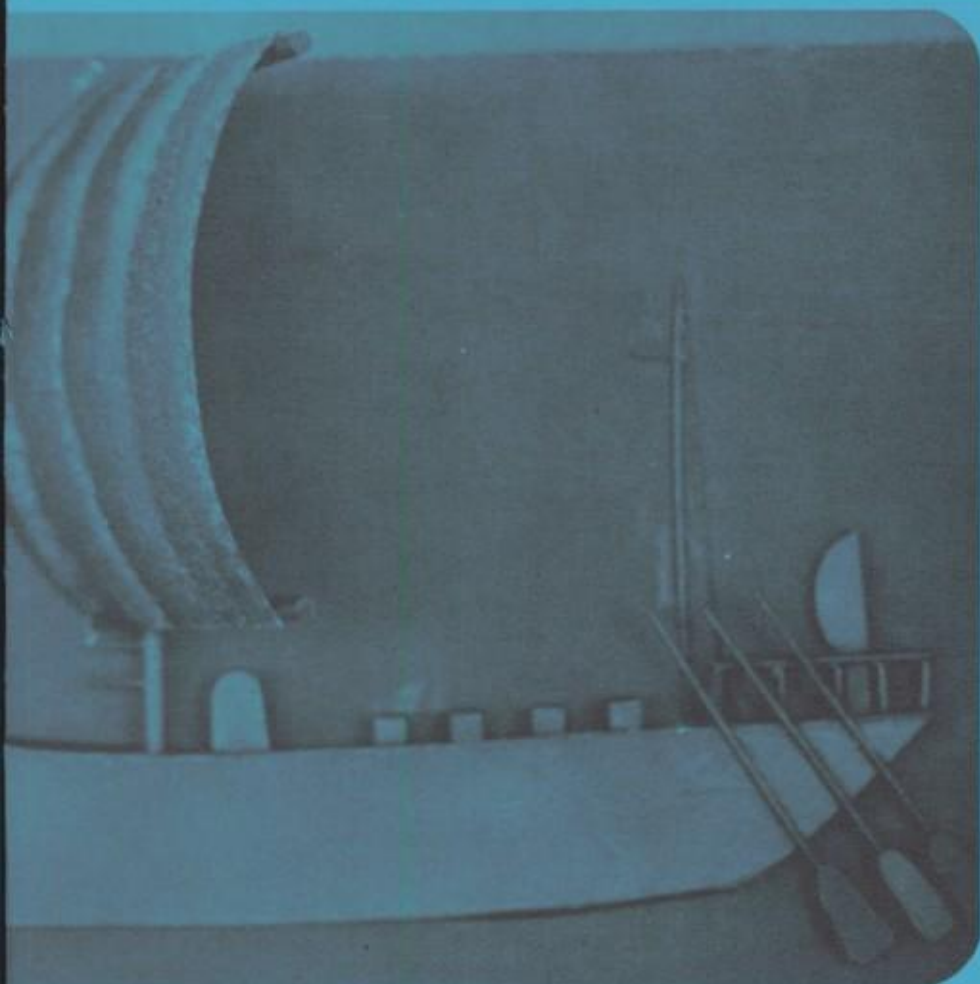

Don't believe life's a circle
That the further you get on
The closer you come to your origin.
I'll tell you the truth!

What life is - It's like sliding through mist
Ever so slowly, not sure what's ahead,
Leaving all behind to be swallowed by it
Crossing the paths converging and separating
With yours - That's what life's like

And if I seem sour,
It's only because that dense moistness
Chilled through me
On the slippery path I was put on,
Helpless but to follow it
With my hands groping in front of my face

Better stumbling to you on your path!

James Kulick

Sitting on the grass

Longs to reach his home.

Jesune Newton

Breeze

An ocean breeze slapping the waves
Whips my hair
The hot glow over the retiring sun fades
With the cooling air
Stars peep out from behind big sister Luna
Who wears a smile on her face
Growing crowded in the overpowering weight
Of the vast void of space

My mind is deep
And within it is an anchor
That holds me

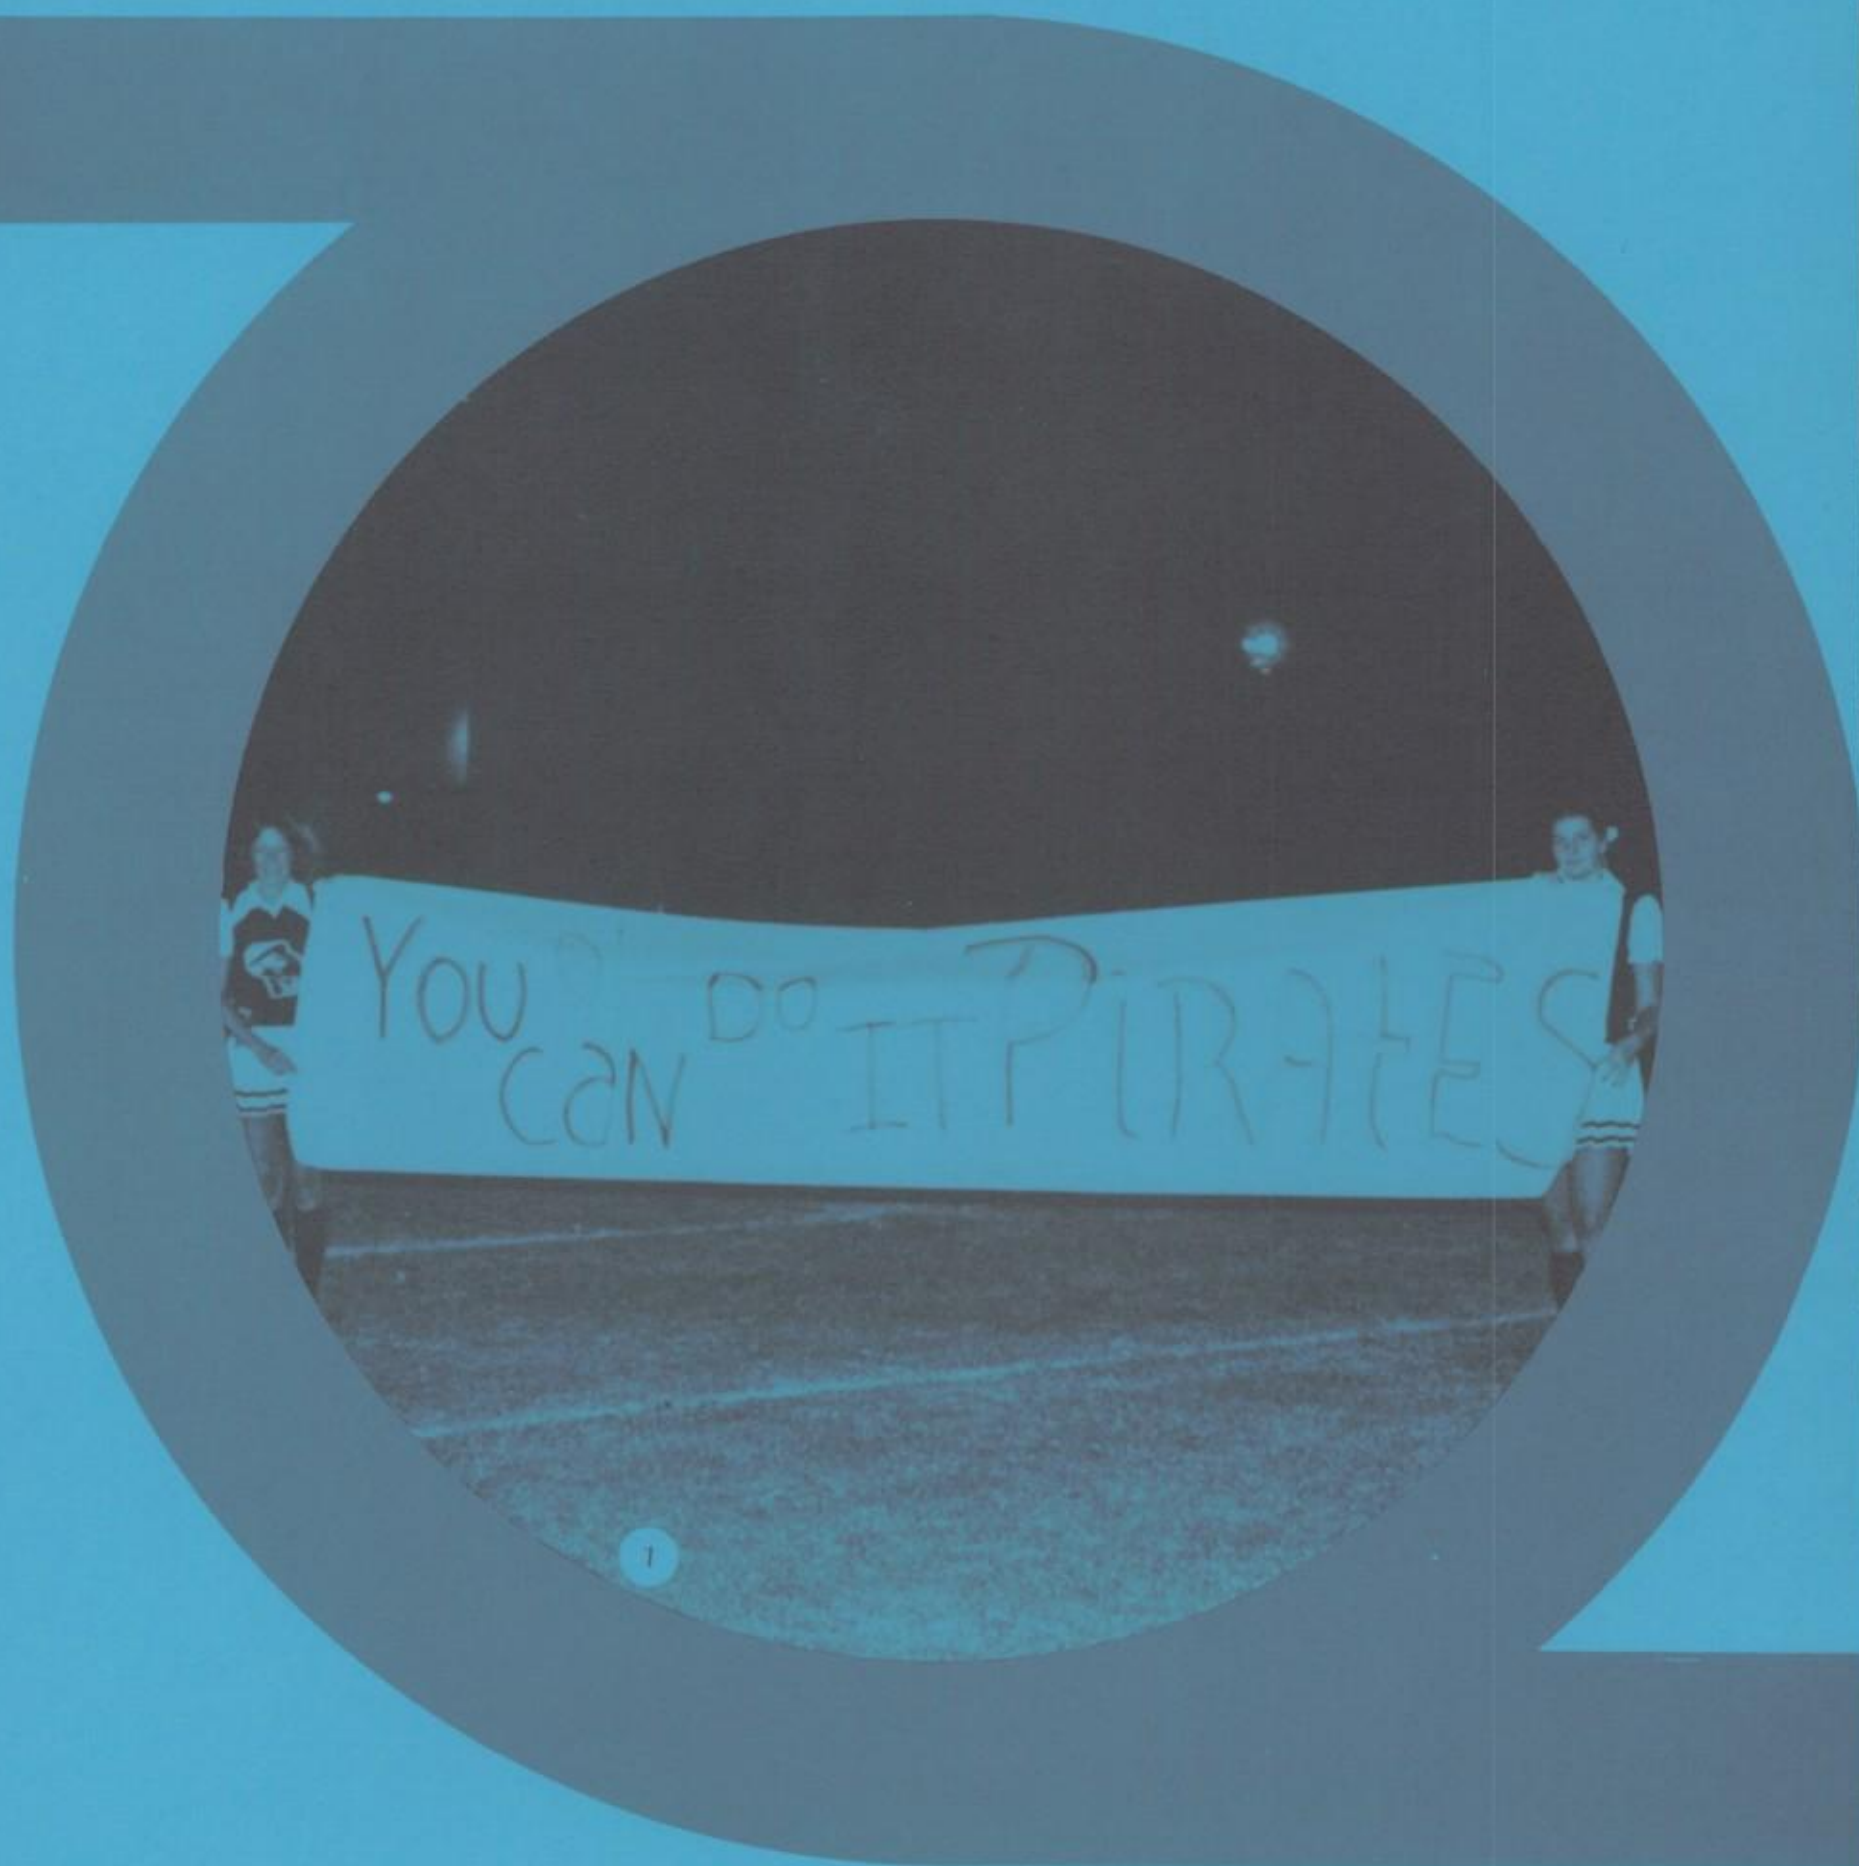

Here the sand is still warm
A lingering reminder from the daystar:
'Don't forget me!'
Which somehow picks me up in thought
Carrying me to you, saying:
'I won't forget'

You were a part of me!
And I feel as though my heart's been excised
And I, of course, am not whole

The world around me sleeps
But I cannot
For you and I are separated
As earth clutches you within its bosom
And I cannot steal you away
So I, along with you, may lie deep in repose.
I want to be with you:
I think tonight.

Silver Dreams and Memories

"Silver Dreams and Memories" is the theme of this year's book which celebrates not only the anniversary of the school but also of the "Jolly Roger." In 1954, when the first "Jolly Roger" was published, it consisted of 168 pages. Now 25 years later, the "Jolly Roger" has grown to 272 pages. The dimensions were $7\frac{3}{4} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ up until 1965 when they became $8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$. In 1971 the book grew to the present size of 9×12 . Not only growing in size but also in appearance, full color first appeared in 1963. Until that year everything was black and white with some use of spot color inks.

I would like to express my thanks to Mrs. Jennie James for her special help and encouragement; to Mr. Jim Gunn and Pace Studio for their service and quality in photography; and to Mr. Gene Myers and Mr. Robert Broyles for their contributions of pictures. And especially to the 1978 "Jolly Roger" staff for their ideas, time and encouragement, I extend my thanks.

I hope you are a lot again
a wonderful day. I see you and I am glad you are a lot again
and I am glad you are a lot again
student teacher, hope for you
